was torpedoed without warning by a submarine. It may be a week or more before Germany is heard from further.

In the meantime the state department will continue compiling evidence furnished by Ambassador Page and consular officers.

In connection with the German ambassador's communication today it was recalled here that three days after the sinking of the Lusitania the ambassador presented a note expressing the sympathy and regret of his government for the loss of American lives.

It was reported tonight that Count von Bernstorff expected to come to Washington shortly to discuss the situation personally with Secretary Lansing.

President Wilson and Secretary Lansing were in communication several times during the day. They conferred briefly at the department and sent the German ambassador's message to the white house.

The German press has received the news of the sinking of the Arabic very quietly and refrains from comment, merely pointing out the press reports from Berlin.

The newspapers publish what purports to be a brief dispatch to the London Telegraph quoting Joseph B. Tumulty, President Wilson's secretary, as saying that Americans are unitedly with the president and will, if necessary, offer assistance to any nation inalienable rights of Americans on land and sea.

The Kreuz Zeitung says: "These unalienable rights as known consist of using British passenger steamers." The London Telegraph says that the Arabic is a ship of the German navy.

London, August 24.—The Hamburg-Paris dispatch agency today received a dispatch from Amsterdam to Reuters' Telegraph company.

After remarking that "Germany's campaign here President Wilson will liberate them from the dangers of a submarine war," the newspaper adds: "It is not to be hoped that the vessel was struck by a torpedo and it may have fallen victim to one of those English mines."

The U-boat acted rightly and even if American passengers on board sank with the submarine, it would not be drowned, then that serves again as a warning that no one should lightly enter the war zone.

torpedo was being; also that the submarine was not to be seen. Captain Finch, in his affidavit, especially emphasized the fact that it would in the first place have been in the second place as he did not see the submarine he could not have attempted to ram her.

The managers of the White Star line at Liverpool gave out the following statement: "There is no doubt the Arabic was struck with a torpedo. Captain Finch did not see the submarine, but undoubtedly saw the torpedo."

"There is no question of the Arabic having tried to ram the submarine because it was not seen" from the bridge.

"There is no question of the Arabic having tried to escape, except the very proper precaution of having put the boat hand over when they saw the torpedo."

"The Arabic was undoubtedly sunk without warning. She was torpedoed while trading with various nationalities aboard. She was outward bound, so there is no question of her carrying any contraband."

The statement was made in the press that she was off the south coast of Ireland, which leads some people to believe that she was carrying gold.

With respect to the precautions taken, these were very thorough and very proper, having regard to all that has taken place in the past.

On the eastern coast of the Atlantic, the Arabic was on the way to the United States. The German press has received the news of the sinking of the Arabic very quietly and refrains from comment.

$20,000,000 LOAN MADE TO FRANCE Credit Arranged by Brown Brothers & Co. — Credit Is for a Period of One Year.

New York, August 24.—Announcement was made tonight by Brown Bros. & Co. that arrangements for a $20,000,000 French commercial export credit have been completed and the credit issued.

The purpose of the credit, says the announcement, "is to enable American exporters to be paid in dollars in the United States, eliminating any risk of exchange, and thus facilitating our exports."

As the credit comes forward and are discounted in the open market, an opportunity will be offered for the first time to set up the appearance of strong firms and institutions in this country, which should discount at the rate of 10 percent.

Five British financiers, and not three, as originally reported, probably will represent Great Britain in arranging foreign credit here, according to advices said to have been received today from London.

It is believed that Sir Edward Holden and Sir Felix Schuster, named in the general report from London, will represent the joint stock banks of London and that a third representative of these banks would accompany them.

Officials think that only by placing Haiti's finances on a permanent and stable basis can drastic action by some European creditor be avoided.

CHOKED NEARLY TO DEATH AFTER MEAL

Mrs. Neese, Birmingham Club Woman, Tells of Vitalitas Experiment.

Mrs. R. L. Neese, a very well-known Birmingham lady, of 1403 Peters street, consented to give the following interview relative to her experience with Vitalitas. "I think Vitalitas has no equal, she said, 'for about fifteen years I have been a sufferer from nervous stomach disorders followed by severe headaches and choking spells. It seemed after I had eaten that I would choke to death. I think my husband has spent thousands of dollars trying to find a cure, but it was money thrown away. I kept getting worse until I could only eat eggs and sweet milk. I decided to give Vitalitas a trial. In all I have taken five bottles and today I can eat any kind of food and also have gained in weight. There is no question but what Vitalitas will actually do the work I am positive I have been the means of selling twenty bottles in my neighborhood and in every case they think as I do about it. Vitalitas is truly a wonderful tonic and corrective. It is made up wholly by Nature and contains no harmful earth chemicals and forces. Many disorders that defy all known medicine are quickly overcome by Vitalitas. Relief and cures regarded as marvelous are daily reported in chronic disorders of stomach, liver, kidney, bowels and blood. See the display and sample Vitalitas at Jacobs' Pharmacy, 23 Whitehall street, or write there for information—(adv.)"

GERMAN LOSSES REACH 1,500,000

Estimate Is Made by Authoritative Source—From 400,000 to 450,000 of the Number Have Been Killed.

London, August 24—A statement from a British authoritative source on Germany's strength in men and her losses, made public here today, asserts that about July 21 the Germans had 1,500,000 men on the western and 1,400,000 on the eastern front—a total of 2,900,000 men on the actual fighting line—while there also were 1,200,000 Austrians fighting the Russians. There were besides many German troops in garrisons, fortifications and on lines of communication, in addition to convalescents, invalids and others. It is impossible to say, the statement declares, how far the reserve troops have been armed and equipped but the fact that the total number of men on the two fronts is only 3,200,000, appears to show that this is about the largest number the Germans are able to put fully equipped into the fighting line. How Losses Were Supplied. The Germans, from a date shortly after the outbreak of the war, supplied the losses in their first line and reserve troops from the second and even the third line, so that it is safe to regard all the German troops in the fighting line as much of the same quality as in the first few months of the war. It is calculated that the first line troops lost about 50 per cent in casualties and the reserves about 25 per cent, their places being taken by recruits from the 1914 class and from other categories and reformed units, including the 1915 class. "Since then they again have lost about 50 per cent, so probably there remains only about 25 per cent of the original first line troops, to which must be added the men slightly wounded who have returned to the fighting line. The German casualties in killed, wounded and missing reported to June 30 total 1,672,444. Of these 306,123 were killed, 15,808 died of disease and 540,722 either are missing or prisoners or are so seriously wounded as to put them out of action for the remainder of the war. Since June 30 there has been heavy fighting, probably bringing the total loss up to 2,900,000 for the year. Loss For Year 1,500,000. "Assuming that half a million men were only slightly wounded and recovered, the effective loss is assumed to amount to 1,900,000 in addition to which probably half a million men are wounded who are absent from the front on leave in hospitals. This makes the total net loss for the year 1,500,000, of whom from 400,000 to 450,000 men were killed. "The Germans, it is calculated, at the beginning of the war had 8,000,000 available for military service and that number might be increased by a million or a million and a half if every man of military age gave his services. The only reasonable suggestion, therefore, for the fact that the Germans have only 3,200,000 men in the fighting line is that they are unable to supply more than that number with equipment. From the total of from 8,000,000 men 3,000,000 men must be deducted to 3,000,000 net loss for the year and the same number of men required for making arms and ammunition."

NO CONFISCATION OF COTTON CARGOES

Consigned to Neutral Countries if Within Normal Consumption of Those Countries—British Embassy Makes Statement.

Washington, August 24—Cotton cargoes for neutral countries will not be confiscated if within the normal consumption of the consigning countries. This assurance was given today by the British embassy. The statement reads: "It is a misapprehension to suppose that the declaration of cotton to be contraband will result in the confiscation of consignments of cotton to neutral countries which are proved to be exclusively for the normal consumption of those countries. The embassy has no authority however, to give any assurance in relation to the particular consignments but under the procedure of international law relating to absolute contraband evidence of ultimate destination will be necessary to the condemnation of cotton as a lawful prize. British Declines to Give Pledge. The declaration of the British embassy to give any pledge as to what will be done with any particular cotton shipment, is understood to be based upon the fact that it will be for the cotton trader to determine what is the normal consumption of the neutral country to which the cotton is consigned. The British government will continue to stop cotton ships to make sure of the neutral destination of the cargoes and their cases may be sent to the courts. No formal notice has yet been served upon the state department in regard to the contraband decree and it is expected that the department will take notice of its publication in the near future. Nothing had been done yet towards preparing a protest against the decree. Burden of Proof for Shippers. It was indicated at the state department today that objection would be made to the requirement under the decree that shippers assume the burden of proof that their cargoes would not eventually reach Germany. It was explained that in amount they were not in excess of the normal consumption of the neutral country, which they are consigned to. It was explained that this same object was sought as to all classes of goods including the cotton. The whole subject will be treated in a new note from Britain on neutral trade now in course of preparation. COTTON TRADERS SUPPORT M'ADDOO. New York, August 24—Secretary McAdoo's plan to deposit $50,000,000 in the south to help finance the early cotton crop movement was received with favor by cotton traders. Big cotton factors welcome the announcement. It was thought that the money should easily care for the usual orders of Austria and Germany, which in the course of the year amount to about three million bales. No immediate effect was expected of noted today but a more optimistic tone prevailed in the futures market. It was pointed out, however, that the cotton thus temporarily carried out of the market would have to be reckoned with in the world's markets. MIXED COURT URGED FOR PRIZE CASES. London August 25—(2 57 a. m.)—The Times again urges the government to consent to the establishment of a mixed court in many respects different from those at present affecting the British and adds: "Some successful American claimants represent very powerful interests. Will they accept an adverse decision of the prize court or even a judicial committee as final? Those who failed before Lord Stowell pressed for a decision by an international tribunal, and claims are not waiting that claimants who fail today in our courts mean to do the same."

STREAM OF MUNITIONS POURING INTO EUROPE

Enormous Orders Only Recently Began to Move From the United States.

Washington August 24—A great part of Europe's enormous orders for arms and ammunition did not begin to move from the United States until comparatively recently, export figures issued today by the department of commerce indicate. The statistics, covering the twelve months ending out June, show that while war exports increased tremendously over the preceding year, the greater part of the increase in some cases from one to one hundred per cent, was in arms exports, left the United States in June. The twelve-month period showed exports of explosives valued at $41,476,188, against $6,272,187 in the preceding year. More than one-fourth of that total—$11,887,744—was shipped during June. Gun powder showed exports of $3,234,349 in June, compared with $6,102,842 for the year. Sixty two aeroplanes were exported in June against 152 for the entire year in the preceding year. Only thirty-four were shipped. Nearly eight times as many automobile trucks were exported in June as in the entire year ended June 30, 1914. Passenger automobile and truck exports for June were valued at $3,854,800, and for the year at $50,254,635. The preceding year they were $26,574,574. Figures for hooped wire harness and saddles showed similar export conditions.

For More Submarines And More Aeroplanes Daniels Will Make Plea

Boston, August 24—Secretary of the Navy Daniels said here today that in his opinion submarines and aeroplanes were among the most powerful weapons of warfare, and reaffirmed his intention to ask congress to strengthen both of these branches of the service. "I also favor faster and more powerful ships for the navy, which, in spite of criticism, is in fine shape," he added. There are fifty more ships in commission and 6,000 more men enlisted than two years ago. Secretary Daniels came here from New London on the sunboat Dolphin. He stopped on the way at the Fore River shipyard and inspected the battleship New Hampshire, destroyers nearing completion. He also made sure that submarines built for a foreign power were still in the yard.

Canned Food Is Sent To Marooned People Of Arkansas Village

Little Rock, Ark., August 24—An appeal for aid late today from the flooded town of Newport to this city resulted in relief supplies being sent at once. Enough canned food to supply 4,000 people with two meals were taken as far as possible by train and then transferred in motor boats to the 5,000 inhabitants of Newport, refugees and passengers on marooned trains. Another arrangement will be sent from Little Rock tomorrow. Governor Hays has telegraphed the war department asking permission to use the tents of the state militia in relief work. While the White river fell considerably today the local weather bureau tonight issued a warning that it is likely to rise again as a result of last night's rains. The bureau urged that all farmers leave the low lands.

FIGHT BEING PLANNED ON STATE INSURANCE

Detroit Mich August 24—Organization of federations of insurance agents and underwriters in every state to fight encroachments of so-called state monopolistic insurance is an aim of the joint convention of the International Association of Casualty and Surety Underwriters and the National Association of Casualty and Surety Agents which opened here today. Delegates contend that the growth of state insurance menaces private insurance business. The insurance men claim the state monopolistic idea first manifested itself in connection with the enactment of working men's compensation laws.

Chamberlin-Johnson-DuBose Co. ATLANTA Chamberlin-Johnson-DuBose Co. Good News of Fall Dresses and Their Prices Dresses That Foreshadow the Coming Fashions at Extraordinarily Low Prices Let us call this an exposition of the new dress fashions for fall; it is all of that, and it is more than that. For such an event is usually marked by prices commensurate with what is exhibited; but here, and we say it plainly and emphatically, the prices do not represent the full values. Trim, smart styles stamped with an unmistakable newness and charm. But let's see just what they are. Taffeta Dresses in plain shades of blue, brown and in black. Charmeuse Dresses in plain shades of blue, brown and in black. Novelty Silk Dresses the new plaids and the new stripes; rich colorings. Silk and Serge Dresses plaids, striped and plain silks used with serges. At $11.75, $12.98, $15.00, $17.50 and $25.00 A hundred style points to claim your interest. Coatees made of serge and forming a short-waisted effect, and beside these, a silk dress with leather belt so placed that the dress becomes a long-waisted style, others very straight and loose-fitting, a sort of Russian style, still others showing a decided "nip" in at the waist. Indeed, lines are varied. And the new plaids, the new stripes, the new use of serge in flounces, in tunics—the effects are mildly startling but decidedly likable. And now note again the prices $11.75, $12.98, $15.00, $17.50 and $25.00 Chamberlin-Johnson-DuBose Co.

Certified Holstein Cow's Milk for Family Use
 Probably you have heard that Holstein Milk is the only cow's milk physicians consider suitable for infant feeding; but do you realize it is the very best milk for every member of your family?
 Babies thrive on Holstein Milk because it is more digestible than ordinary milk. That's reason enough for everyone to prefer it for family use.
 In Holstein Milk the moderate amount of butterfat is in the form of minute globules less than half the size of those in ordinary milk. These small, even globules melt rapidly in the action of the digestive fluids and are easily absorbed, while the fat globules in ordinary milk form large tough curds that resist digestion.
 Holsteins are the healthiest of cattle. Their milk has the highest vitamin quality that children and the aged especially need. Use it freely and there will be less sickness in your home.
 A visit to our farm will give you confidence in our methods of handling milk—Certified by Patent County Medical Association.

To the woman who cannot afford to make a mistake

QUALITY is very important to the woman whose new suit or coat is expected to look well for one whole season, and possibly two or more. It is just as important as style, for a good style does not stay good unless supported by good materials and good tailoring.

Wooltex suits and coats have both materials and tailoring of superior quality to maintain their trim, fresh, stylish appearance.

Wooltex styles are correct and new, yet they are not the faddish kind that pass in a week or a month.
 They are designed for gentlewomen, and every suit or coat shows the best style tendencies of the season.
 They are smart looking and becoming, and so refined. They are garments in which you will be well dressed and stylishly dressed for a full season, and even longer.

Outer materials are pure wool, shrunk before cutting. Silk linings are pure silk. All seams are tailor-basted before stitching.
 Expert tailors make every part of every Wooltex garment, whether it be to sell at a low price or a high price.
 Every garment is carefully inspected four times before it leaves the tailors. And every garment bears the Wooltex label, the guarantee of style correctness and quality excellence.

 It was not the Colonial Trust company, of 35 North Broad street, that has been doing business in Atlanta and Georgia for years, referred to by City Detectives Bass Rosser and C. O. Cochran in an interview in Tuesday morning's Constitution.

 "We had no reference to the Colonial Trust company," said the detectives, "we referred to a trust company by similar name, said to exist on the fake deposit slip."

Clark Holds Crackers--Early Game Today

Lookouts Rout Allen; Clark Holds Locals Safe; An Early Session Today

EARLY GAME TODAY. The final game between the Crackers and the Lookouts at Ponce de Leon this season will start at 2:45 in order to allow the Lookouts to catch a train for New Orleans, where they play Thursday.

By Carl Taylor. Consuming two hours and ten minutes of a perfectly good August afternoon to play nine innings, the Lookouts won the second game of the series from the Crackers by a count of 5 to 1. With the exception of two features the game was absolutely one of the most uninteresting and unexciting games that has ever been served up to local fans.

BASEBALL TODAY ATLANTA VS. CHATTANOOGA PONCE DE LEON PARK GAME CALLED AT 2:45

The locals are again two games shy of this mark. Chattanooga bats two Allen as easy marks, and wallowed him for four runs and three runs. High to win the game in the third frame. Allen was certainly off, and no matter what he served, the Lookouts hit it with a wallop, and routed him. Day, who pitched him in the fourth, and pitched the remainder of the game, allowed six hits and two runs.

The other feature of the afternoon was the playing of Caveny at short. This worthy got everything that came anywhere near him. He covered ground from second to third, and made six catches and two putouts. He had nine chances in all, but bobbled one. His playing was great, and no matter where the ball went to anywhere near him, he invariably would scoop it up and retire the runner.

Identical like the one he nailed in yesterday's game, he crashed into the grandstand and was knocked out. After a few minutes he was revived, but was unable to continue.

Second baseman Pitter, of the first team, was forced to retire in the first inning. Lee was singled and held second. Clark caught him napping, and Lee, in attempting to return to the bag, struck Pitter, resulting in his loss. Kerritt, who subbed at second, played a creditable game.

QUERIES ANSWERED. (Under this head the sporting editor will endeavor to answer all questions pertaining to all branches of sports.) There is a man on third base with one man out, the batter knocks a fly to center field. The man on third does not try to come home on the fly, but the center fielder, holding the ball, would not get the ball home, the pitcher jumps up and slides into the man on third. Is this a strike for the pitcher or what is it? M. A. T.

Washington 2, Elberton 0.

Elberton, Ga., August 24.—(Special.) Washington turned the table on Elberton today, defeating the locals by the score of 2 to 0. It was a pitchers' battle between Hunt and Wilder. The only hit scored off Hunt, their favorite star, was a hard hit ball to their shortstop, which he could not handle and was questionable. The breaks of the game were against Wilder. Batteries--Elberton, Wilder and Harper; Washington, Frank Hunt and Stone. The two teams play the deciding game tomorrow, when Robert, son of Columbus, Ga., will be on the mound for Elberton against Livingston, for Washington.

CONFIDENCE IN WILSON VOTED BY GOVERNORS

Sharp Division Over Question of Extending Powers of State Executives.

Boston, August 24.—Resolutions of confidence and support were sent to President Wilson today by governors of nearly a score of states attending the annual conference of governors here.

These resolutions, introduced by Governor Walsh, of Massachusetts, and approved by the several commonwealths of the nation, in conference assembled, desire to tender to you, President Wilson, the confidence and support in this hour of deep international concern; and to assure you of their affectionate loyalty and allegiance in all matters which you may deem best to promote the honor and maintenance of the peace and welfare of the nation and the whole people.

A sharp division of opinion manifested itself at the conclusion of addresses by former Governor William H. Mann, of Virginia, and Governors Robert L. Williams, of Oklahoma, and Moses Alexander, of Idaho, who urged the extension of the powers of the governor.

Former Governor Alva Adams, of Colorado, took advantage of the opportunity for discussion afforded by the program. "You would have us drift away from democracy, to drift from the policies of Thomas Jefferson and George Washington," he said.

"What time was this?" "Between 6:30 and 7 o'clock in the morning." "Where were you at the time?" "I had been fishing with Bob Cochran, I had driven my horse into a creek to water him when three or four automobiles came along the road, and I saw a crowd of fifty yards off the road. Bob Cochran said to me, 'I wonder what all that is about?' I said, 'I look like a joy rider, don't I?'

"Do you know anything about the hanging?" "Nothing." "Is there anything you would like to state to the jury?" Mr. Wing hesitated a moment. Then he said:

Colonel J. V. White Dead. New York, August 24.—Colonel John V. White of the coast artillery, stationed at Fort Hamilton, died today. He ranked third to the chief of the coast artillery in the United States district attorney, announced to the jewelers that an effort will be made in connection with the penal code so that the time during which a bankrupt is absent from the jurisdiction of the state will be included in granting exemption under the statute of limitations.

NO MAN YET SELECTED AS MEXICAN PRESIDENT

Question Has Not Been Considered Under Pan-American Peace Plan.

Washington, August 24.—The state department today denied that the United States government ever had considered "any particular man for provisional president of Mexico." The statement was prompted by inquiries from Mexico regarding reports that the Pan-American conference thought of suggesting some particular Mexican leader to head a provisional government.

The name of Vasquez Tagle, minister of justice in the Madero cabinet, had been mentioned frequently, and recently a report had been circulated that General Obregon was being considered. General Carranza's agents here said tonight that their chief's reply to the Pan-American appeal would reach Washington shortly. It is expected to suggest prompt recognition of the Carranza government as the surest way of aiding Mexico. European diplomatic agents are said to have given encouragement to Carranza's representatives.

AMNESTY OFFERED BY GENERAL CARRANZA. General Carranza, August 24.—An amnesty proclamation by General Carranza, the terms of which have not been defined, is expected to be issued to draw many Mexican families out of this section into Mexico. Fighting continues in the region of

YAGUIS REPULSED BY CARRANZA TROOPS

Douglas, Ariz., August 24.—Dispatches from Nogales reported today that Yaqui Indians had attacked Hermosillo, capital of Sonora, yesterday, but were repulsed by Carranza adherents. Twenty-six were killed during the fighting. Among the dead are Alberto Canou, a wealthy land owner, whose flour mill was looted by the Indians.

MEMORIAL IS PLANNED TO DR. JOSEPH HOLMES

Pittsburg, Pa., August 24.—A memorial is to be erected here to the late Dr. Joseph A. Holmes, who was director of the United States bureau of mines. Landon Stone, engineer in charge of the Pittsburg bureau, announced last night that he had appointed a committee composed of five men connected with the local bureau to make plans for a memorial, but just what form it would take had not yet been determined. Dr. Holmes died in Colorado last July.

APARTMENT HOUSES

Judiciously constructed and properly located they pay well. Do not buy too expensive a site, but be sure to have plenty of street frontage. Back-end apartments do not rent well. We offer a site at the junction of Euclid and Lake avenues, in Inman Park. It has 200 feet frontage on each street and is about 140 feet across. We can sell this site for $5,000; ground floor space for eight apartments; only $25 a foot for double street frontage. It would be hard to find a place better suited for a family apartment home.
