

Wilson Calls Halt On German Submarine Warfare; Emphatic Note Drafted and Approved By Cabinet

GREATEST BATTLE OF THE WAR RAGES ON WESTERN FRONT; ALLIES ARE GAINING

French Claim Belgians and British Have Repulsed the Germans and the French Themselves Have Made Notable Progress North of Arras.

ADVANCING GERMANS ARE LITERALLY MOWED BY THE BRITISH GUNS

Germans Again Tried to Use Asphyxiating Gases, But the British Had Prepared and Took Charging Germans by Surprise—Desperate Fighting Continues in Galicia—The Austro-Germans Claim Great Victories, But Claims Are Not Admitted by Petrograd.

London, May 11—With two of the greatest battles of the war in progress—one between Arras and the Belgian coast, and the other in western Galicia—to say nothing of operations in the Dardanelles, and lesser engagements along the British lines and again around the armies of the belligerents are now fully occupied. The battle in northern France and Flanders might be divided into three sections. From the coast to Dixmude the Belgians, supported by French marines have taken the offensive, and besides repulsing German counter-attacks have gained a footing on the right bank of the Yser canal. Around Ypres particularly to the east of that town the Germans continued to attack the British lines and again around Arras and a tremendous amount of artillery but according to the British version without making any impression. Farther south as far as Arras the French continue their offensive and have made material progress capturing a number of Germans with guns and machine guns. Great importance is attached to the French operations as it threatens the German lines of communication for the armies on the Oise and the Aisne. The battle doubtless will not be decided for days.

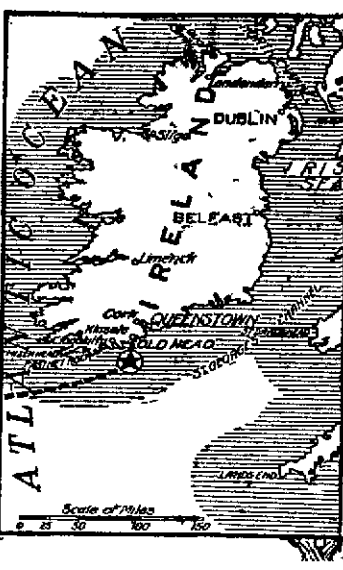

ARTILLERY PLAYS GREAT ROLE.

According to the French report, the Germans their railway lines having been damaged by allied airmen have brought up reinforcements by motor trucks. These have been met by the concentrated fire of the French artillery. In fact, the artillery is becoming more and more the determining factor in the war.

RUSSIANS TRYING TO HOLD GERMANS.

The Russians are making desperate efforts to stop the Austro-German onrush in western Galicia and are fighting stubborn rear-guard actions, in an endeavor to hold the German allies until reinforcements can come up. Despite the serious reverse they have suffered in the western part of the province, the Russians continue attacking in eastern Galicia and along the eastern section of the Carpathians. At the other end of the line, in the Baltic provinces, the Russians apparently have brought up a force sufficiently strong to drive back the German raiders threatening Mitau. Seemingly, they are leaving the Germans in

Alfred G. Vanderbilt's Body Reported Found

ALFRED VANDERBILT AND MAP SHOWING LOCATION OF DISASTER. It is generally admitted that from various private sources Alfred G. Vanderbilt got word that the Lusitania would be torpedoed. He is said to have admitted to reporters before the ship sailed that he had many telegrams urging him not to sail. Like the other passengers on the Lusitania, however, he took these warnings lightly. In the accompanying illustration are shown Mr. Vanderbilt and a map showing the location of the disaster.

VANDERBILT'S BODY REPORTED FOUND

It is said that the body was picked up on the Irish coast and is being taken to Queenstown.

Queenstown, May 12—(3 03 a. m.)—There is a persistent rumor current here that Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt's body has been recovered on the Irish coast. Webb Wade, Mr. Vanderbilt's secretary is investigating the rumor.

London, May 12—(3 10 a. m.)—The Daily Mail asserts that the body of Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt has been found and is being taken into Queenstown.

More Corpses Are Recovered. Queenstown, May 11—The identification of ten of the sixteen dead picked up during last night by the Dutch tug Poolzee chartered by the Cunard company twenty miles west of the spot where the Lusitania was sunk, was the only incident of the day tending to relieve the depressing routine.

Among the sixteen dead brought in by the tug only two were the bodies of Americans—Mrs. Stewart Mason of Boston and Mrs. Della Condon wife of Terence Condon of New York. The American consul claimed both and will send them to the United States. Ten bodies from Baltimore and two from Castletown were expected to arrive at Queenstown this afternoon on the tug Flying Fox but an obdurate coroner insisted on a formal inquest before releasing them and it was doubtful tonight when the bodies would reach here.

There is considerable indignation among some of the survivors who say that full measures to recover the floating dead have not been adopted but the Cunard officials assert that it is almost impossible to charter tugs or other craft as all of them have been commandeered by the British admiralty. The tug Poolzee was found in this harbor only by chance.

There are plenty of British war craft available for the search, but it is considered that it would be inviting submarine attacks to cruise around the scene of the disaster. The Poolzee went as far south as Cape Clear and returned with quantities of the Lusitania's light deck furniture. A misty rain was falling when

BY RACE IN AUTO FORMER ATLANTAN OBTAINS A BRIDE

Leesburg, Ga., May 11—(Special.)—A wedding of unusual and romantic interest occurred recently when Edwin Yow, son of E. M. Yow formerly of Atlanta, but now of this place, was wedded to Miss Louise Hammock, of Shellman by Rev. Sims, at Albany. The couple had known each other for only about a week, but the little love god was perseveringly on the job from the very first. The young people attempted an elopement Friday evening, but were temporarily thwarted by relatives of the young lady, whom she was visiting in anticipation of the arrival of the bride's father who had been notified of the couple's intentions.

The bride is the attractive daughter of Joe Hammock, of Shellman, and was reported engaged to a young preacher in Savannah. Mr. Yow, the groom, is assisting his father, who was a former real estate man of Atlanta in the management of a large plantation near here.

Protest Against "Inhuman Methods" Employed by German Government.

Bradford, England, May 11—A deputation of prominent German residents and business men called on the lord mayor today and protested against the inhuman methods employed by the German government in waging war against non-combatants, including women and children, which have culminated in the sinking of the Lusitania.

Mr. Wilding was a second lieutenant in the Royal Marines.

SOCIOLOGY CONGRESS CONCLUDES SESSION

Houston, Texas, May 11—The Southern Sociologist congress concluded its fourth annual convention here tonight. The next meeting place will be selected by the executive committee. John Hilder, of New York, field secretary of the National Housing association, a speaker at the final session, advocated municipal governmental control as a remedy for bad housing conditions, which, he declared, were largely responsible for high infant mortality and the propagation of inefficiency and immorality. S. F. Brooks, president of Baylor University, Waco, Texas, who was elected president of the congress last night, urged the delegates to inaugurate health crusades in their localities.

ATLANTA EXTENDS 2,000 NEWCOMERS ROUSING WELCOME

Rotarians, Who Foster the Idea, Make Auditorium-Armory Scene of Gaiety and Old-Timers Catch the Spirit.

THOUSANDS ENLISTED FOR "GREATER ATLANTA"

Massive Picture of "Atlanta in 1965" Shows Goal to Which New and Old Citizens Will Work.

The monster crowd which almost filled the Auditorium Armory last night at the first annual Newcomers season production is assured that Atlanta can show the man who invented the word "fantasy" exactly what it means when applied correctly. From the time the last spectator had filed through the armory doors on the way home the Rotarians were objects of profuse congratulations upon the success of a celebration that promises to become an annual affair and an institution in civic life. The success of the event even exceeded the expectations of its creators and its next season's production is assured. More than 2,000 new residents of Atlanta were in attendance. Some estimated the number at 3,000, while others were inclined to go higher. Anyhow there were more Newcomers than Oldtimers, and the Auditorium was more than two-thirds filled—so judge for yourself.

Newcomers Line Up. There wasn't a dull minute and never a wry face or lack of smiles and laughter. Oldtimers and newcomers mingled in the seething throng, shaking hands, getting acquainted and spreading jubilation to the tune of roving strains from a twenty-piece band.

No more graphic illustration of the unbounded spirit of revelry could be found than the instance of the young and ethical underwriter who was discovered in a conspicuous corner of the Auditorium joining in the chorus of "Tipperary" as it was being sung upon the stage by Mrs. Frank Pierson and her quartet.

Scenes of Atlanta's biggest and most influential business men participated in the evening's events. This represents the character of the Rotary club, but there were big business men who were not Rotarians who loaned helping hands and glad hands to the entertainment of the Newcomers.

Welcome Addresses. The lofty and massive ceiling of the Auditorium resounded with song and music and laughter. The performance was opened by an address from Albert S. (Bert) Adams, president of the Rotary club, who gave a welcome in lieu of Governor Statton, who was in New York. He was followed by a short talk from Mayor Woodward, another from Rev. Richard Orme Flinn Burton Smith and Dr. Lyons. After which came a solo, followed by a quartet selection by Mrs. Frank

GERMANY MODIFIES HER WAR ZONE ORDER FOR NEUTRAL SHIPS

Submarine Commanders Specifically Instructed Not to Harm Neutral Vessels Not Engaged in Hostile Acts.

IF SHIPS ARE INJURED DAMAGES WILL BE PAID

And Germany Will Also Express Regret—Latest German Announcement Is Transmitted to Washington by Ambassador Gerard.

Washington, May 11—Germany through Ambassador Gerard today notified the United States that submarine commanders had been specifically instructed not to harm neutral vessels not engaged in hostile acts, and that Germany would pay for damages to such ships in the war zone. Neutral ships carrying contraband will be dealt with the announcement says according to the rules of naval warfare.

To Pay Damages. If neutral ships are accidentally damaged in the war zone Germany will express regret and pay damages without prize court proceedings. The German government justifies its submarine warfare on the grounds that England is threatening to starve the civilian population of Germany by prohibiting neutral commerce in foodstuffs and other necessities.

In previous communications Germany has disclaimed responsibility for any harm that might befall neutral vessels venturing into the war zone.

Text of German Statement. The text of the announcement cabled by Ambassador Gerard, which was issued by the German foreign office, is in the form of a circular as follows:

First. Imperial German government naturally has no intention of causing to be attacked by submarine or aircraft such neutral ships of commerce in the scene of naval warfare, or definitely described in the notice of the German admiralty staff of February 4 last, as having been guilty of an unauthorized act. On the contrary, the most definite instructions repeatedly have been issued to German war vessels to avoid attacks on such ships under all circumstances. Even when such ships have contraband of war on board they are dealt with by submarines solely according to the rule of international law applying to prize warfare.

When Neutral Ships Are Sunk. "Through it is the custom of the German government as soon as the sinking of a neutral ship in the above mentioned zone of naval warfare is ascribed to German war vessels to institute an immediate investigation into the cause. If the grounds appear thereby to be given for association of such a hypothesis the German navy places itself in communication with the interested neutral government so that the latter may also institute an investigation.

If the German government is thereby convinced that the ship has been destroyed by German war vessels it will not delay in carrying out the provisions of paragraph 2. In no case will the German government contrary to the viewpoint of the neutral government be not convinced by the result of the investigation the German government will institute an investigation.

The text of the German government's declaration is ready to allow the question to be decided by an international investigation commission, according to chapter three of The Hague convention of October 18, 1907 for the peaceful solution of international disputes." GUARDS ARE DOUBLED FOR GERMAN STEAMERS

Boston, May 11—Customs guards on the German steamers that sought refuge here at the outbreak of the war were doubled today by order of Edmund Billings, collector of the port. Mr. Billings explained that he had heard rumors that attempts to damage the steamers might be made in retaliation for the destruction of the Lusitania and although he feared no such action he wished to take every precaution.

BOSTON GRAND OPERA ENDS IN BANKRUPTCY

Guarantee Is Demanded That Lusitania Horror Will Not Be Repeated

American Note Warning Germany She Would Be Held to "Strict Accountability" Is Recalled—Germany Is Told That the Fact That She Gave Notice of Intention to Commit Unjustifiable Act Does Not Justify the Act. President Wilson Realizes the Gravity of Step Decided Upon, and Is Prepared to Back It Up by Measures Necessary to Uphold Honor of United States.

Washington, May 11—President Wilson had virtually decided tonight on the first step in the policy which the United States government will pursue as a result of the sinking of the British liner Lusitania with the loss of more than a hundred American lives.

The president will act promptly—within another day or two a draft of a communication to be sent to Germany was submitted to the cabinet today and approved unanimously. While no official announcement was made, it was learned that the United States would present and insist upon an explanation of the series of incidents which have occurred since the proclamation of a war zone around the British isles, the sinking of the Falaba, causing the death of Leon C. Thresher, an American citizen, the attack by German armers on the American steamer Cushing, the torpedoing of the American steamer Gulflight and finally the destruction without warning of the Lusitania with a toll of more than a thousand lives.

OLD GLORY FAILED TO SAVE GULFLIGHT FROM THE GERMANS

Captain Smith in Sworn Statement Tells How German Submarine Deliberately Attacked the American Steamer.

Washington, May 11—The state department late today made public a sworn statement by Ralph E. Smith, former chief officer and now master of the American steamer Gulflight, describing the torpedoing of that vessel May 1 off the Scilly Islands when torpedoed, the officer says the Gulflight was flying a large American ensign six by ten feet in size. He said he saw the submarine but could not distinguish or see any flag flying on her.

Chief Officer Smith further says that shortly before the submarine was sighted two British patrol boats the Jago and Eiley took positions on either side of the Gulflight and ordered her to follow them to the Bishop lighthouse. 'I personally observed our flag standing out well to the breeze' the officer stated.

Captain Smith's Statement. The text of Captain Smith's statement follows: 'I am Ralph E. Smith, former chief and now master of the steamer Gulflight. At the commencement of the voyage I was chief officer. The ship left Port Arthur on the tenth day of April, 1915 about 4 p. m. laden with a tank cargo of gasoline and wooden barrels of lubricating oil. The voyage was uneventful. When about half-way across the Atlantic the wireless operator told me there was a British cruiser in our vicinity and that he had heard messages from this ship the whole time since leaving Port Arthur, but she made no direct communication with us or our ship. From the callous with or to our ship. From the callous for the destruction of the Lusitania and although he feared no such action he wished to take every precaution.

On the last day of May, about 11 o'clock in the forenoon we spoke two British patrol vessels named Jago and Eiley. We were then about 22 miles west of the Bishop lighthouse. The patrol vessels asked where we were bound. After informing them we were bound for Rouen, they ordered us to follow them to the Bishop. The Eiley took up a position of a half-mile distance.

the president was determined to act firmly and deal with each situation as it arose. It was pointed out, too, that in his speech at Philadelphia, in reference to peace, Mr. Wilson was expressing merely an ideal that he wished America could and would follow.

Persons familiar with the president's point of view, indicated, however, that he was by no means unprepared for or unswayed by the possible eventualities of the present crisis and knew that circumstances and events over which the United States might have no control might make vigorous action necessary.

ANOTHER INDICTMENT FOR MISS RAE TANZER

New York, May 11.—Miss Rae Tanzer, who gained notoriety recently through her $50,000 breach of promise suit against James W. Osborne, a well-known criminal lawyer, which suit was subsequently withdrawn after the young woman had recanted her identification of Mr. Osborne as the man who had courted her, was again indicted today by the federal grand jury perjury. A previous indictment was found against Miss Tanzer on charges of using the mails to defraud.

It Was a German Torpedo Fired by a German Seaman From a German Submarine That Sank the Lusitania

That Is Great Britain's Answer to Germany's Attempt to Justify Deed by Charging Responsibility to Britain—Official Reply to German Note to United States.

London, May 11.—Inquiry in official circles here elicited tonight the following statement representing the British official view of Germany's justification for torpedoing the Lusitania, which Germany transmitted to the state department at Washington: "The German government state that responsibility rests with the British government, which through her plan of starving Germany's civil population has forced Germany to resort to retaliatory measures. The reply to this is as follows: "As far back as last December Admiral Sir Percy B. Northbrook (minister) foresawed a submarine blockade of Great Britain and a merchant ship which carried her plan of torpedoing in January and February. "The German government on February 4 declared her intention of instituting a general submarine blockade of Great Britain and Ireland, with the avowed purpose of cutting off supplies for these islands. This blockade was put into effect February 18. "Before Foodstuffs Were Stopped. "As already stated, merchant vessels had as a matter of fact, been sunk by a German submarine at the end of January. Before February 4, no vessel carrying food supplies for Germany had been held up by his majesty's government except on the ground that there place in a prize court the foodstuffs were intended for use of the armed forces of the enemy or the enemy government. "His majesty's government had, however, informed the state department on January 23 that they felt bound to place in a prize court the foodstuffs of the steamer Wilhelmina, which was going to a German port in view of the government's control of foodstuffs in Germany, as being destined for the enemy government, and therefore, liable to capture. "The decision of his majesty's government to carry out the measures laid down by the order in council was due to the action of the German government in insisting on their submarine blockade. This added to other infractions of international law by Germany, led to British reprisals which differ from the German action in that his majesty's government scrupulously respect the lives of non-combatants carrying on merchant ships and do not ever enforce the recognized penalty of condemnation for a breach of the blockade, whereas the German policy is to sink enemy or neutral vessels at sight, with total disregard for the lives of non-combatants and the property of neutrals. "The Answer to Germany. "The Germans state that in spite of their offer to stop their submarine war in case the starvations plan was given up, Great Britain has even taken more stringent blockade measures. The answer to this is as follows: "It was not understood from the reply of the German government that they were prepared to abandon the principle of unrestricted submarine warfare. They have refused to abandon the use of mines for offensive purposes and the high seas blockade and trade routes with mines, and British and neutral vessels will continue to be endangered from submarines whether German or otherwise. "It should be noted that since the employment of submarines contrary to international law, the Germans also have been guilty of the use of asphyxiating gas and the poisoning of water in South Africa. "The Germans represent British merchant vessels generally as armed with guns and say that they repeatedly rammed them. The answer to this is as follows: "It is not to be wondered at that merchant vessels, knowing they are liable to be sunk without warning and without any chance being given those on board to escape, should take such measures for self-defense. With regard to the Lusitania, the vessel was not armed with guns and was not rammed. "The German attempt to justify the sinking of the Lusitania by the fact that she had arms and ammunition on board. The presence of contraband and a large number of passengers, liable to capture, but certainly not to destruction with the loss of a large number of lives and passengers. Every enemy vessel is a fair prize, but there is no legal provision, not in any of the prizes of humanity, which would justify what can only be described as a murder because a vessel carries contraband. "The Germans maintain that after repeated official and unofficial warnings his majesty's government were responsible for the loss of life, as they considered themselves able to declare that the boat ran no risk and thus the responsibility for the loss of life on board a steamer which owing to its armament and cargo is liable to destruction. "The Crime Premeditated. "First, his majesty's government never declared that it ran no risk. "Second, the fact that the Germans issued their warning shows that the crime was premeditated. "Third, no more right to murder passengers after warning them than before. "Fourth, the attempt to put the blame on Great Britain, it will tax the ingenuity even of the German cabinet to do so. "Fifth, it was a German torpedo, fired by a German seaman from a German submarine, that sank the Lusitania and caused over one thousand deaths. "Italy on the Brink of the War Chasm. Rome, May 11.—(Via Paris).—Italy is in a state of indecision with regard to her stand for or against war. The cabinet is divided, the opinion of former Premier Giolitti, who believes it would be better to avoid war and that of the cabinet. "The cabinet is credited by the Giornale D'Italia, supposed to reflect the government's views, with holding the conviction that Italy should not make any commitments which would be grave reasons cannot accept the scant offers of Austria, even putting aside the delay with which they were made, and considers it more advantageous to join the war on the side of the allies. "The opposite opinion of even such an authoritative parliamentary man as Signor Giolitti, it is declared, will support the cabinet even if war is declared, putting his patriotic duty above his personal opinion. "Even discussions among the opposition parties virtually have ceased. Only the irreconcilable socialists whose deputies meet in the chamber, still oppose Italy's participation in the war, and their attitude is believed to be guided more by desire for convenience than because of opposition to war. "Sharp Retort to Kaiser. The Agency National says Emperor William has written Dr. Engel, mother of King Victor Emmanuel, pointing out advantages she believes would result if Italy would remain neutral. The dowager queen is quoted as having replied to the German emperor: "In the house of Savoy we reign one at a time." "William is reported to have previously written an almost identical letter to the Italian king. "The Kaiser, it is said, says Italy demanded the integrity of Serbia and Belgium as a condition of its neutrality, and that this was one of the chief causes of delay in the conversations. "Andreas Hermes, head of the section of sciences of the international institute of agriculture, who had returned to resume his post after a leave of absence, was sent home on the night train by the police who are said to have learned that he is connected with the German government. "WAR QUESTION OF FEW DAYS. "On the Italian Frontier, May 11.—The opinion prevails in Rome that Italy's participation in the war is only a question of days. "Along the Austrian frontier, where the companies of Associated Press has been from one end of the line to the other, it is universally felt that war is a question only of hours. "Geneva, Switzerland, May 11.—(Via Paris).—All Italian officers and men in Switzerland are being ordered to be ordered yesterday to rejoin their regiments immediately. Austrian and Bavarian forces are concentrating in the Tyrol. "AUSTRIO-GERMANS MAY HIT FIRST. "Paris, May 11.—It is being presently rumored in Paris that Germany and Austria already have declared, or about to declare war on Italy, in anticipation of the German declaration of war against them. The report lacked confirmation. "Another wide-spread rumor was that Italy had signed an agreement with Great Britain, France and Russia to take part in the war not later than then. The report came from the Milan correspondent of the Excelsior transmits a second dispatch from Lugano, Switzerland, saying the police of Lugano have been instructed to make preparations to protect Prince von Bielow, German ambassador in Rome, when he passes through that city on his way home. "Italian Embassy in Austria. A Milan dispatch from Udine to the Havas agency says trains arriving from Austria are filled with Italian travelers. Soldiers are waiting at the railway station for pieces on trains. "Another version of the territorial concessions Austria has made to have proposed to Italy has been printed by the Matino of Naples and telegraphed to the Havas agency. It says that in this report Austria is willing to cede part of Trent to Italy, together with a strip of territory in the region of the Piave river, which empties into the Gulf of Trieste. Trieste itself is absolutely excited as well as Austria. "The Italian cabinet is said to have considered these concessions insufficient and made counter proposals, demanding all of Trent up to Brenner, together with Trieste and Udine, including the railway station at Udine. Trieste, will insist on obtaining Trieste, but is ready to give Austria commercial guarantees.

MOMENTOUS CRISIS FOR UNITED STATES That's View of Ex-Secretary of War Dickinson. U. S. Must Act or Incur Contempt of World.

Chicago, May 11.—Jacob M. Dickinson, secretary of war under President Taft, issued the following statement here today: "I regard the possibilities of the destruction of American lives on the Lusitania as even more momentous to the nation than those involved in our civil war. No question of maintaining republican institutions was then involved, because, except as to the principle of succession, the constitutions of the two governments were practically the same. I have no doubt that if the south had succeeded, disintegration would have set in, and that long before this all the states would have been reunited under one government. "The outcome of the present condition may involve us in a career, in comparison with which, leading to the life of our nation, the possibilities of civil war, in any event, were not comparable. "United States Must Act. "It is not likely that Germany will discover the purpose to destroy the Lusitania with full knowledge of the fact that this involved many American lives. In view of the result and the warning given by our government to Germany, some proper action must be taken, or the American government will incur the contempt of the world and the contempt of a vast number of its own people. "If action should be taken should not be declared in advance by those who are not officially responsible to the people for the grave results that may follow. It would be unwise to have the public mind committed to a course of action before the administration shall declare its purpose. Our judgment and utterances, as to the course of action to be taken should be held in suspense so that the public, without preconceived set views, shall be free to form its own opinion. "Our nation has stood consistently for peace and arbitration, and the exhaustion of all proper peaceable methods to settle international differences before resorting to arms. "It is especially important that a period of calmness should intervene in order that our action may not be prompted by excitement and our judgment clouded by passion. "In the present inflamed and ferocious state of the German mind, we could easily get into war. "Our nation has stood for the four years of civil war and need no prophet to forecast to me what it means. Any action that may lead to such a result should be taken calmly, deliberately and with a full appreciation of the consequences. "If war comes, it should only be upon the condition that we are clearly in the right, and in such event our people should, with a full appreciation of the possibilities that may result to themselves and what they have to the utmost needs of the country. "I have great confidence in the president, and believe that he not only will sustain our national dignity, but will exhaust all peaceable means, consistent with our national dignity before committing our country to war."

CONFIDENCE IS VOICED IN UNITED STATES NAVY If Called Upon to Vindicate Nation's Honor it Would Uphold Heroic Traditions.

New York, May 11.—Pride in the United States navy and confidence that if called upon to vindicate the honor of the nation it would uphold the heroic traditions of its past were voiced at a luncheon tendered today to Admiral Fletcher and the officers of the Atlantic fleet at Francis Tavern by the Sons of the Revolution. The occasion was one of the many events arranged for the entertainment of the fleet during its visit here and was followed tonight by a reception to the officers at the New York Yacht Club. The enlisted men, meanwhile, were again enjoying to the full the baseball and theater parties which are a daily feature of the entertainment provided by the citizens' committee. The guests for the luncheon assembled in the historic room, where George Washington, passed from his officers and Washington, as the first commander-in-chief of the United States navy, was in part the theme of the address. James M. Heck, former attorney general, the principal speaker, declared that if the United States had been present, "he would share with the pride and gratification that we take in the navy of the United States and in the confident expectation that if the time should ever come when that navy would be the most potent in the world, every member, from the admiral on the bridge to the minutest stoker in the engine room, would unite in passing along as a flaming torch to the next generation the noble and heroic traditions of the American navy."

Admiral Fletcher voiced the appreciation of the enlisted men for the welfare and the training accorded to the enlisted men of the United States navy. He declared that the United States navy, under the leadership of the officers and crew which they grew up was a whole some one. There was no abatement today in the throngs of sightseers who visited the waterfront to view the fleet at anchor in the river.

Italy on the Brink of the War Chasm. Rome, May 11.—(Via Paris).—Italy is in a state of indecision with regard to her stand for or against war. The cabinet is divided, the opinion of former Premier Giolitti, who believes it would be better to avoid war and that of the cabinet. "The cabinet is credited by the Giornale D'Italia, supposed to reflect the government's views, with holding the conviction that Italy should not make any commitments which would be grave reasons cannot accept the scant offers of Austria, even putting aside the delay with which they were made, and considers it more advantageous to join the war on the side of the allies. "The opposite opinion of even such an authoritative parliamentary man as Signor Giolitti, it is declared, will support the cabinet even if war is declared, putting his patriotic duty above his personal opinion. "Even discussions among the opposition parties virtually have ceased. Only the irreconcilable socialists whose deputies meet in the chamber, still oppose Italy's participation in the war, and their attitude is believed to be guided more by desire for convenience than because of opposition to war. "Sharp Retort to Kaiser. The Agency National says Emperor William has written Dr. Engel, mother of King Victor Emmanuel, pointing out advantages she believes would result if Italy would remain neutral. The dowager queen is quoted as having replied to the German emperor: "In the house of Savoy we reign one at a time." "William is reported to have previously written an almost identical letter to the Italian king. "The Kaiser, it is said, says Italy demanded the integrity of Serbia and Belgium as a condition of its neutrality, and that this was one of the chief causes of delay in the conversations. "Andreas Hermes, head of the section of sciences of the international institute of agriculture, who had returned to resume his post after a leave of absence, was sent home on the night train by the police who are said to have learned that he is connected with the German government. "WAR QUESTION OF FEW DAYS. "On the Italian Frontier, May 11.—The opinion prevails in Rome that Italy's participation in the war is only a question of days. "Along the Austrian frontier, where the companies of Associated Press has been from one end of the line to the other, it is universally felt that war is a question only of hours. "Geneva, Switzerland, May 11.—(Via Paris).—All Italian officers and men in Switzerland are being ordered to be ordered yesterday to rejoin their regiments immediately. Austrian and Bavarian forces are concentrating in the Tyrol. "AUSTRIO-GERMANS MAY HIT FIRST. "Paris, May 11.—It is being presently rumored in Paris that Germany and Austria already have declared, or about to declare war on Italy, in anticipation of the German declaration of war against them. The report lacked confirmation. "Another wide-spread rumor was that Italy had signed an agreement with Great Britain, France and Russia to take part in the war not later than then. The report came from the Milan correspondent of the Excelsior transmits a second dispatch from Lugano, Switzerland, saying the police of Lugano have been instructed to make preparations to protect Prince von Bielow, German ambassador in Rome, when he passes through that city on his way home. "Italian Embassy in Austria. A Milan dispatch from Udine to the Havas agency says trains arriving from Austria are filled with Italian travelers. Soldiers are waiting at the railway station for pieces on trains. "Another version of the territorial concessions Austria has made to have proposed to Italy has been printed by the Matino of Naples and telegraphed to the Havas agency. It says that in this report Austria is willing to cede part of Trent to Italy, together with a strip of territory in the region of the Piave river, which empties into the Gulf of Trieste. Trieste itself is absolutely excited as well as Austria. "The Italian cabinet is said to have considered these concessions insufficient and made counter proposals, demanding all of Trent up to Brenner, together with Trieste and Udine, including the railway station at Udine. Trieste, will insist on obtaining Trieste, but is ready to give Austria commercial guarantees.

Pure Food Expert Investigates Grape-Nuts

Before Grape-Nuts was included in the Pure Food Director of the New York Globe, the publishers sent their expert, Alfred W. McCann, to get the facts about this famous cereal food—what it is made of, how it is made, and whether or not too much had been claimed for it.

The makers have always held that Grape-Nuts is a body and brain-building food; that it contains the vital mineral elements lacking in white flour, and foods made from white flour, that it digests more readily than any other prepared cereal food, etc.

McCann came to Battle Creek at the Globe's expense. He investigated—had the run of the factory—up-stairs, down-stairs and all over the place.

In the N. Y. Globe of April 1, 1915, he said:

"Any man who can go to Battle Creek and come away with the statement that he is not amazed is given to the habit of bearing false witness against his neighbor.

"I watched the delivery of the wheat to the Grape-Nuts bakery. It was selected wheat too. I watched the mills grind this wheat, and there was no patent flour stunt pulled off in grinding it, either. The wheat went right through the rolls and came out as honest and as unrefined as when it went in. I saw this wheat mixed with barley malt in a mixing room that is a model of cleanliness.

"Grape-Nuts is an honest, genuine, wholesome, good, fool proof breakfast food.

"Grape-Nuts is all Post ever claimed for it. Instead of over-estimating the truth he didn't tell ten per cent of it."

There you have it! If you want to know more, write Alfred W. McCann, care N. Y. Globe, N. Y., or come to Battle Creek and see for yourself. There's no mystery about Grape-Nuts.

This wonderful food DOES build body, brain and nerve tissue. It DOES furnish the vital mineral phosphates usually lacking in the daily dietary. It is easily digestible, economical, and comes ready to eat, fresh and delicious.

GRAND JURY BEGINS WORK; TWO OFFICERS OF T. M. A. INDICTED

The first gun in the grand jury investigation of locker clubs was fired yesterday when the jury indicted Mrs. Minnie Tabarini and J. M. McMillan, as officials of the Theatrical Mechanic Association club on the charge of a misdemeanor.

The indictment was returned following the examination of detectives and police officials. Whether or not in vestigations are pending against other clubs court officials would not say.

Judge Hill in his charge to the grand jury when it was organized at the first of the month, strongly urged that a rigid investigation be made of the locker clubs and whiskey violations, and stated that the matter of club regulations lay more in the hands of the grand jury than the chief of police.

The two officers of the T. M. A. club were recently haled into court as a result of a breach, between Mrs. Tabarini and McMillan, and which also resulted in police prosecution.

COMMISSION WILL HEAR FRANK APPEAL ON JUNE 7

Secretary Yancey Declares Special Hearing Rumor Was Without Foundation.

Goodloe H. Yancey, secretary of the state prison commission, stated Tuesday that the Frank appeal for a special hearing will probably be taken at the regular session of the board at the next scheduled meeting, the week of June 7.

This statement followed a report yesterday to the effect that the Frank case had been scheduled to come before the board on May 19.

Mr. Yancey said there was no basis for this report. There has been much speculation whether or not the Frank plea would be heard at a specially called session, or would take its due course.

Judge Patterson and K. E. Davidson, members of the prison commission, will be in Atlanta during the week of May 19. It was stated, although their visit is said to have no connection with the Frank case, that they may also be here next week.

Mr. Yancey said Tuesday that no action had yet been taken or outlined in regard to the appeal, except of course the filing of the formal appeal immediately after notification of the supreme court versus the governor-elect Harris.

Statement by Governor Slaton. An Associated Press dispatch from New York follows: Governor John M. Slaton, of Georgia, in a statement made here last night regarding the appeal for clemency for Leo M. Frank, said there was a possibility that he might not be called on the case in the case of the board of prison commissioners of Georgia, adjourned its sessions last week to convene again June 7.

The governor stated that it probably would take some time for the board to review the evidence in Frank's case and that his recommendation might not be in hand before the time for his successor, Judge N. B. Harris, to take office.

NEAR BEER SALOONS TO PAY $500 LICENSE

Police Committee of Council, It Is Said, Favors Increase of $200.

The city licenses for near beer saloons will probably be increased from $300 to $500 a year. While no concerted action has yet been taken by the police committee of council, it is believed by a majority of the committee that council will be asked to make the increase.

This action of the police committee may meet with objections. It is said, by some of the near beer saloon keepers, that the new license will be paid in advance by members of the police committee for an increase of the license will be that there are too many near beer saloons in the city and a higher license will cause several of them to drop out.

Councilman Edwin Johnson, chairman of the police committee, stated Tuesday that his committee had not heard from any of the beer clubs in regard to printed blanks which the club members had been asked to fill out.

The beer clubs have until June 1, stated Councilman Johnson, to file their blanks with the city clerk. I suppose they will have them filled within the next two weeks.

Fined For Fighting Over Dispute About Lusitania Disaster

Charged with drunken and disorderly conduct, Hayden Vandus, a man of some sixty years, told Recorder Johnson Tuesday that the sinking of the Lusitania was responsible for his plight.

"It all started over an argument about the sinking of the Lusitania," said the old man. "Your honor, I said no matter if there was contraband on the vessel, no matter if the ship was British, the drowning of innocent women and children was murder in the sight of God and man."

The officers alleged that Hughes became so excited in his arraignment of the Germans that he came very nearly beating out one of the local near beer saloons.

"Hughes," said Recorder Johnson, "ought to send you up to court with Wilson and Bryan on the policy they should adopt in this recent national controversy, but I will afford you your right to be heard on the Germans. To abide by President Wilson's orders to preserve strict neutrality, I think I'll have to send you up for twenty-one days."

COMMITTEE GIVEN MONTH TO REPORT

Police Board Demands Action of Probers—Recommend That Old Police Be Placed on Pensions.

The special investigating committee of the police board of commissioners, who have been for some time investigating charges by leading citizens of inefficiency against the police department, came in for a round of criticism at last night's monthly meeting of the police board for not having turned in their report before this time.

The result of the criticisms was that the probers have been limited to thirty days in which to complete their investigation. At the opening of the meeting Captain English criticized the special probe committee for not having finished their probe by this time.

When Commissioner English made a motion that the probe committee be given only ten days longer to complete their probe it became apparent that the so-called faction of "liberals" was also backed up in their opinion by a so-called "conservative" Commissioner Andy King immediately seconding Commissioner English's motion.

English Demands Action. "The charges against the chief and the department are important and the board and the citizens of Atlanta should know as soon as possible if they are well grounded," said Commissioner English, "and I, for one, do not approve of the probe committee taking forever in going to the bottom of them."

Thirty Days to Report

Captain English's motion was amended by Commissioner J. D. Sisson, a member of the probe committee, giving the investigators thirty days longer to make their report to the board.

The Constitution believes that to place a good book in the hands of anyone is to do that one a substantial favor. It follows that to distribute the works of a master like Victor Hugo, at a price within easy reach of all, is an achievement of which any newspaper may well be proud.

Those who have read any one of Hugo's romances have enjoyed a never-to-be-forgotten treat. Those who haven't read at least one, have surely missed a master writer. No one can be said to have known the best in literature who has not read "Les Miserables," "Ninety-three," "Notre Dame," "The Laughing Man," and "The Toilers of the Sea"—a few notable portions from the six supreme volumes that constitute Hugo's Complete Romances, now afforded at the ridiculously low cost of $1.50. It should be remembered that these sets are not for sale in book stores. They can not be secured at retail even from the publishers, and if they could, the cost would be higher than the present nominal figure.

MRS. THOMSON TELLS WOMEN

How She Was Helped During Change of Life by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Philadelphia, Pa.—“I am just 52 years of age and during Change of Life I suffered for six years terribly. I tried several doctors but none seemed to give me any relief. Every month the pain was intense in both sides, and made me so weak that I had to go to bed. At last a friend recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to me and I tried it at once and found much relief. After that I had no pains at all and could do my housework and shopping the same as always. For years I have praised Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for what it has done for me, and shall always recommend it as a woman's friend. You are at liberty to use my letter in any way.”—Mrs. THOMSON, 649 W. Russell St., Philadelphia, Pa.

MISERY IN HEAD AND BACK

A Lady Writes She Suffered So, Would Have to Stay in Bed For Days. Is Now Well.

Cartersville, Ga.—The following is from Mrs. Will T. Lawhon, of Cartersville: "I am writing this because I want other women to know what Cardui has done for me.

Before I commenced taking Cardui, I had headache so bad, I would have to stay in bed for days at a time. I suffered untold misery with my head and back.

I saw Cardui advertised and decided to try it. I took three bottles. After taking the first bottle, I could see a vast difference in my feelings, and decided to take the second, and took three in all.

After taking the third bottle, I felt like a new woman altogether, and I will always praise Cardui as a boon to woman's ills.

I believe it saved my life and I am now a well, healthy woman, and my husband joins me in my praise for Cardui.

Before I began taking Cardui, I was irregular, but since I began taking it, I have been regular and without any pain.

Everyone tells me I am the picture of health since taking Cardui. I will recommend it to every suffering woman."

If you suffer from any of the ailments so common to women, or if you feel the need of a good strengthening tonic, why not give Cardui, the woman's tonic, a trial? Begin today. Your druggist sells Cardui.

Decatur School Presents Play.

The English department of the senior class of the Decatur high school presented in the gymnasium, Monday night to a large and appreciative audience. Shakespeare would have been proud could he have seen the splendid representation of his characters in the forest of Arden, and should any of the players aspire to drama, Ben Jonson would no doubt welcome them to his fold of outdoor players.

Miss Jewell Wilburn as Rosalind, depicted her role in a most realistic manner, while Clifford Alden made an ardent lover as Orlando. Miss Mary Houston and Miss Lillian Harden kept the audience in an uproar with their gay antics as Touchstone and Audrey. William Biggers as the Banished Duke, was exceptionally clever in his role, while his followers played their parts in the portrayal of their respective parts.

Miss Nellie Kate Stephenson, as Celia, was radiant in her gentleness and sweetness, while the work of Miss Vischer as the scornful Phoebe, was exceptional.

Miss Mary Beall Weekes, as Jaques, showed marvelous ability.

The supporting players in their different roles, added much to the success of the play.

Much credit should be given Miss Christy, Mrs. Alden, and Mrs. Jeta, as directors.

WORK ON GORDON ROADS.

County's New Machinery Will Soon Be in Operation.

Calhoun, Ga., May 11.—(Special.)—With the location of the Dixie highway only a few days away, the interest and enthusiasm are being shown daily in Calhoun and Gordon county.

The commissioners of Gordon county at their regular meeting here purchased a complete roadworking outfit, consisting of a forty-horsepower tractor engine, with all other implements necessary in roadbuilding. This machinery is now being shipped and will be put in operation on the roads at once, and with the work that is already being done, it is intended to have a full force at work by the latter part of this week.

According to an official report of a government surveyor, Gordon county has the most level roads of any county from Chattanooga to Atlanta and very little grading will be necessary. The same survey shows that along the route in Gordon county, there is an abundance of surfacing material of the very best grades, which can be obtained within a minimum time and at a minimum cost. Gordon county will be able to present to the Dixie highway committee a stretch of road as good as any from the lakes to the gulf.

It is also shown that the route from Chattanooga to Atlanta, via Ringgold, Dalton, Calhoun and Cartersville, is over fifteen miles more direct than any proposed route. These facts, together with the fact that the route from Chattanooga to Atlanta, via Calhoun, Dalton and Ringgold, is unquestionably the most historic route, are expected to win the selection of the commission.

SOUTH GEORGIA SELLS MANY POLES AND TIES

Valdosta, Ga., May 11.—(Special.)—Crossett manufacturers and dealers in this section report a great improvement in business within the past thirty days. The same is true also of the telephone and telegraph pole dealers, who are receiving many large orders. It is said that a number of the big railroad systems which have practically been out of the market for a year are buying liberally now. The Seaboard Air Line is understood to be asking bids on from 150,000 to 200,000 crossties, while inquiries and orders for ties and poles are being received from other systems. The O. C. Dumb company, of Valdosta, has just filled an order for a lot of the largest cypress poles ever shipped from this section. They were 35 feet long, 23 inches in diameter at the butt and 18 inches at the top, and cost 3 1/2 apiece.

FARM WORK IN MORGAN ENCOURAGED BY RAINS

Macon, Ga., May 11.—(Special.)—Recent rains have encouraged farmers and they have gone to work again with renewed vigor. While a big crop of cotton is being planted, the sale of fertilizers has fallen off considerably. Many factories in this section have failed to receive their doors remaining closed all the season. Only about thirty-five per cent of fertilizers will be sold this season as compared to last year. This is a great reduction.

UNIVERSITY GRADUATE SENTENCED AS BURGLAR

Macon, Ga., May 11.—(Special.)—B. G. Martin, a graduate of Sewanee university, was this morning sentenced by Judge H. A. Mathews, in the Bibb superior court, to serve a term of ten years in the penitentiary for burglary of the Gubbedge-Kidding Hardware company. E. F. West, also arrested for the same offense, was given a similar term yesterday. Both of them were arrested several weeks ago in Atlanta.

Martin, a young man with a good flow of language and a personality that appealed to everyone, was very confident in his own defense throughout, examining the witnesses and making the argument before the jury just before he was sentenced. He made a plea for leniency.

The young women have practiced with enthusiasm and hope to make the festival one of the most attractive events of the term.

Browning and Tullos Sold; Niederkorn to Be 'Farmed'; Locals Are Cut to Fourteen

By Dick Jemison. Late last night Manager Bill Smith of the Crackers announced that two more Crackers had been dropped from the pay roll.

Pitcher Browning and Third Baseman Tullos have been sold to the San Antonio team of the Texas league, and will leave at once to join their new team mates.

Timon Bowden will be turned back to St. Louis today and where the former University of Georgia boy will then play will be up to Manager Rickey of the Browns.

Manager Smith is dickering with the Mobile club to place Doc Niederkorn, the young catcher whom he purchased from Charlotte, of the Carolina league, last fall, with the Gulls for the remainder of the season.

Since the injury to Manager Schmidt that will keep him out of the series for two weeks, it is believed that today the Gull chieftain will wire Manager Smith to send Niederkorn on wherever Niederkorn goes it will be with a string attached, and he will be back at Ponce de Leon again next season.

These cuts will bring the Crackers to fourteen men the roster as it stands now being Catcher Jenkins, Infielders Smith, Ebel, Williams, Bissland and Manning.

Outfielders Lee Moran and Rumber. It is also reported that when Pitcher Ferguson reports to the Crackers that one of the remaining five twirlers will go to make room for him it will be several days before Ferguson reports however, as Manager Rickey of the Browns will hold on to him until Hamilton gets into a condition.

As to the report that he was after an inlander by the name of Hammond from the Cleveland club, of the American league, Manager Smith stated that this was news to him.

Whichever Niederkorn goes it will be with a string attached, and he will be back at Ponce de Leon again next season.

These cuts will bring the Crackers to fourteen men the roster as it stands now being Catcher Jenkins, Infielders Smith, Ebel, Williams, Bissland and Manning.

The song of the old jimmy pipe. just rings in your ears when you fire up load after load of Prince Albert—tobacco without a bite, without a parch. You can smoke it sun up to sun down without a comeback, because it is made by a patented process that removes the bite and the parch. So, first thing after breakfast, you make fire with a match and open the day as do the little birds—with song and sunshine! Then you'll be right jimmy pipe joy'us, which is good for what ails your smoke appetite! PRINCE ALBERT the national joy smoke. has jimmy open pipes for thousands of men who were once scorched—and, naturally, pipe-shy. The most sensitive tongue won't even tingle when you smoke P. A. So, you take a chance, and get some smoke fun sunshine into your system. For there's nothing friendlier nor truer to a man than his old jimmy pipe. And you'll know that's a fact quick as you hit the P. A. trail to pipesmokejoy! Prince Albert makes a corking cigarette. You never put a cleverer smoke between your teeth. And P. A. rolls up mighty easy and without waste because its crisp cut—and stays put! You take a trip—and play ball! Buy Prince Albert everywhere in tippy red bags, 5c; tippy red tin, 10c; pound and half-pound tin tins, and the handsome pound crystal-glass humidor with the sponge-moistener top that keeps P. Only Small Offerings of the Staple in Evidence—Spot Holders Not Anxious to Sell.

Cotton Region Bulletin. For the twenty-four hours ending at 11 a. m., 75th meridian time, May 11, 1915.

RANGE IN NEW YORK COTTON. Open, High, Low, Last, Prev. Close.

RANGE IN NEW ORLEANS COTTON. Open, High, Low, Last, Prev. Close.

New York, May 11.—A more optimistic feeling as to international cotton was reflected in the cotton market today with October contracts selling up to 10.05, or approximately 3 points from the low level reached on yesterday's break and with the last closing strong with a net gain of 3 3/8 points on the day.

The opening was steady at an advance of 8 to 10 points in response to a rally in the cotton market following the break of yesterday, there appeared to be comparatively little cotton in the market today, and it was readily disposed to take much smaller view of the general conditions. Favorable news from the cotton market, however, had been promoted by reports that the weather bureau tomorrow would read more favorably than it has for some time, and there were only slight reactions, and the market showed greater activity toward the close of the day, which appeared to be some fresh Wall Street buying as well as more active covering by recent sellers. Final prices were practically the best of the day.

Minimum temperatures are for 12-hour periods from the actual number of reports received, and are not included in averages. "High" and "low" temperatures are for 24 hours ending at 7:58 a. m., 75th meridian time, except where otherwise indicated.
