LOANS TO FIREMEN RESULT IN PROBE BY FIRE MASTERS

Trial of T. S. Kerlin Results in Discovery That Probably a Score of Men Have Indorsed Notes for Friends Despite Regulations.

OFFICERS AND FIREMEN HAD BORROWED $2,100

Rules of Department Say That Any Fireman Who Indorses Note Automatically Forfeits His Position in the Department.

As a result of the probe last night by the board of fire masters into charges preferred against T. S. Kerlin, motor driver at headquarters station, a score of officers of the department, including assistant chiefs, captains and lieutenants, may lose their positions.

When the board last night conducted its investigation, based on the arrest last week of Bagajski, at the instance of Kerlin, who said he found him in his home with his wife at the Kerlin residence, 69 South McDaniel street, it developed that Kerlin was operating a private loan business among the firemen and officers and that several thousand dollars was due him from the men.

In his statement before the board he accounted for $2,100 due him from firemen and officers, including Fire Assistant Chief R. H. Pressly, Captain O. J. Parker and G. B. Carlton, secretary to Chief Cummings.

Owed Him Big Sum. Kerlin stated that these men and others had borrowed money from him on indorsements by firemen and that one of them owed him as much as $540; another admitted owing Kerlin more than $400 and another stated he owed Kerlin $147.

The board had the secretary procure the minutes of a meeting of the board held in May of last year when a resolution was passed, providing that any fireman who indorses a note automatically forfeits his position in the city.

The minutes of the board Kerlin agreed to furnish them a list of the men against whom he holds notes and the names of the men who indorsed them.

These revelations were made to the board when Kerlin took the stand in his own defense. He stated that nearly all of the men who had testified against him were his money and charged that some of them were with one name (he had the name of an active part in securing his dismissal from the department, in the belief that he would be an aid in relieving them from paying their notes.

This testimony was admitted by the board to determine whether or not any of the men named were prejudiced against Kerlin.

Charged 5 Per Cent. Kerlin said he had charged the firemen 5 per cent per month interest, in answer to a question of what agreement was made when loans were negotiated.

"Don't you know you are violating the law?" asked Mayor Woodward.

"No, sir, I am not violating any law," Kerlin replied. "I am asking for the money and offer to pay me 5 per cent," replied Kerlin.

Chief Cummings was put on the carpet by members of the board and asked Kerlin's actions. He said he would know nothing of his extensive loan business and stated that his first information of the practice was when Kerlin himself made the statement before the board.

Testimony before the board last night brought the following facts against Kerlin: Kerlin had been a member of the fire department thirteen years, and bore a good record.

Wanted by Officers. Kerlin admitted that officers of the department came to him before his marriage and warned him, telling him some of the reports they had heard of Mrs. Kerlin, at that time Mrs. Jacobs. He said he told her of the reports; that she denied them and that he had faith in her and believed her statements.

ROOSEVELT CASE RESTS WITH JURY

Jurors Locked Up for Night Upon Failing to Reach a Verdict After Deliberating for Seven Hours.

Syracuse, N. Y., May 20.—The jury chosen to determine whether Theodore Roosevelt libeled William Barnes was locked up at 11.27 o'clock tonight, after it had deliberated for more than seven hours and failed to reach a verdict.

A request involving politics was made by one juror on the single occasion that he and his companions were brought back into the courtroom.

Juror No. 3—Walter J. Zull, a Syracuse manufacturer and a progressive, asked Justice William B. Andrews to reiterate that part of his charge in which he said the jurymen would not be performing their sworn duty if they considered politics or allowed their individual political beliefs to play any part in the reaching of a verdict.

"I don't know but what it would be a good idea if you would repeat that part of your charge in which you said that no political opinion of our own should in any way affect us reaching a verdict; that we should overcome all personal prejudice, that in reaching a decision we should consider nothing but the evidence and that alone."

Justice Andrews surely must understand that it would not be performing its duty if it did otherwise.

He then announced that he would adjourn court until 10 o'clock tomorrow, when a verdict if found during the interval, would be received. He told the jury that if it failed to reach a verdict by 11 o'clock tonight it would be locked up until tomorrow.

The jury then fled back to its room and remained there until 7 o'clock, when the twelve men left the building for dinner. On their return in half an hour they resumed their deliberations behind locked doors.

Justice Andrews, in his charge to the jury, said: "Do not publish falsely any article that holds a man up to ridicule and disgrace and to injure his character, is libel. The intention or object of the libel must not be taken into consideration. Because a man is in public life he is not an outlaw and he can be libeled just as much as any other citizen. No question of privilege enters into this case. When charges are made against a man, if they are true, that is sufficient defense. Anyone has a right to publish

KITCHENER TO GO; CHURCHILL ALSO

Lloyd-George and Bonar Law Are Favored for War Head and Balfour for the Admiralty.

London, May 20.—The national government which will guide the British empire for the duration of the war is in progress of formation. Leaders of the political parties conferred throughout the day arranging details.

No statement as to the personnel of the new ministry has been made, except that Premier Asquith and Foreign Secretary Grey will retain their posts.

Earl Kitchener, secretary for war, is generally agreed, has too much to do, raising new armies and seeing after the output of munitions, and some of these duties will be shifted to other shoulders.

Chancellor Lloyd-George and Andrew Bonar Law, opposition leader, are about equally favored for chief head of the war office, and A. J. Balfour is mentioned for a similar position in the admiralty.

However, there is to be a complete change in the whole government, including not only the cabinet, but the undersecretaryships as well, and posts will be distributed among the liberals, unionists and laborites, according to their strength in the house of commons.

The nationalists, it is understood, have decided to stand aside. T. P. O'Connor, in an article in his weekly newspaper, says that John E. Redmond, the nationalist leader, respectfully refused the offer of a seat in the cabinet, and adds:

"I have no doubt he felt that such a refusal was imposed upon him by the conditions of Irish public life. The Irish party has a long, unbroken tradition behind it of single-minded and self-sacrificing devotion to the cause of Ireland, and probably many of the hard-won countrymen might think he would have broken that tradition or he at least would be charged with breaking it, were he to take any office in the government, but as this would involve a great change it is not likely to be considered."

The King, who today was joined by Earl Kitchener in a visit to the munitions centers in the north, was represented at the governmental conference by Baron Stamfordham, private secretary to his majesty.

"I hope one of the first acts of the coalition government will be to declare martial law and mobilize both men and women for the service of the country." Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, leader of the militant suffragettes, told a meeting at Hull tonight.

Measure Conferring Full Powers on Government in Case of War Is Passed Amid Tremendous Enthusiasm by Vote of 407 to 74.

FORMAL DECLARATION OF WAR IS EXPECTED NOW AT ANY MOMENT

"We Have Confidence in Our August Chief, Who Is Preparing to Lead the Army to Glorious Future," Cries Salandra.

Rome, May 20.—(Via Paris, May 21, 4 a. m.)—All members of the cabinet maintain absolute silence regarding what step will follow the action of the chamber of deputies today in conferring upon the government full powers to make war.

Former ministers and other men prominent in public affairs declare, however, that the action of parliament virtually was a declaration of war.

FORCES OF ITALY MAY HAVE ACTED.

London, May 20.—Any lingering hope that Italy would maintain her neutrality was abandoned tonight when the Italian chamber conferred on the government extraordinary powers in the event of war's outbreak.

The German and Austrian ministers were still in Rome tonight, but according to Berlin dispatches their one care now is to arrange for the safety of their nationals remaining in Italy.

A formal declaration of war, or perhaps action without a formal declaration, is expected momentarily. At any rate, all preparations for naval and military action have been made on both sides and it is possible that while the Italian premier, Signor Salandra, was explaining to the cabinet and the world the policy of his government, the troops on the frontier and the navies in the Adriatic had anticipated diplomatic action.

WAR BILL ADOPTED BY ITALIAN CHAMBER.

Rome, May 20.—(Via Paris)—The chamber of deputies has adopted the bill conferring full powers on the government. The vote was 407 against 74.

One member abstained from voting. The bill passed amid tremendous enthusiasm.

Premier Salandra introduced a bill this afternoon in the chamber of deputies conferring on the government extraordinary powers in case of war.

GEORGIA LAWMAKERS ASSAILED BY ANDREWS

Urges Police to Pay More Attention to Crime and Less to Locker Clubs.

A vigorous rap was taken at the police department and lawmakers of Georgia by Walter F. Andrews, representative-elect from Fulton county, in a stirring address before the Ad Men's regular luncheon in the Hotel Ansley Thursday.

A feature of his talk was his announced stand in favor of liberality on the liquor question, and his statement that the prohibition laws in Georgia were more effectively enforced than in any state in the union.

"If the police and officers of law would pay more attention to murders, holdups, burglaries and similar crimes, instead of prying around and into locker clubs and beer saloons, we would have less crime," he said, "and we would have less crime. You don't have to depend entirely on what I say. Read the papers every day. He charged that the legislature had, for eight years, frittered away its time on near beer and locker clubs, and that it was high time for the members to stop foolishness and get down to sound and earnest effort."

"If it were not for Tipple and such cranks," he declared, "the legislature would progress a long way toward accomplishing many of the things that are of value to the state. It is such bills as that presented by Tipple that lies up the whole machinery of the law-making process and prevents the achievement of really worth-while effort."

Broader and more liberal laws should prevail in the big counties. I do not refer only to locker clubs and beer saloons when I say this. It is up to such men as you and me to show the legislature that you believe this. If you want things to be done up to making bodies for locker clubs and beer saloons, however, well and good—I am with you. I am only your representative to voice your sentiments.

The time for filing these reports expired April 3, but owing to tardiness of many counties secretary Cook allowed a little extra time. Those counties which have filed their reports are mailing the money to which they are entitled.

Secretary Cook announced on Thursday that parties justifying such claims will not be included in the disbursement and he will proceed to divide the money.

"Jitney Bus" Again.

The "jitney bus" in Georgia is now not only competing with street car companies, but with steam railroads as well, as it is shown in the instance of the "Jitney Line," an interurban "jitney bus" line being operated in south Georgia, which has been called to the attention of the state railroad commission.

The line operates three cars daily, except Sunday, over a distance of 155 miles, running from Weston to Richmond, Lumpkin, Preston, Plains, Americus, Smithville, Leesburg, Albany, Sasser, Dawson, and Burke to Weston. The cars make the trip in eight hours and charge 4 cents per mile with a minimum charge of 25 cents.

The line also furnishes special cars when a party justifying such asks for a car. It also makes a specialty of carrying visitors to the National cemetery at Americusville.

A. W. Elliott, manager and makes his headquarters at Weston.

CLEMENCY FOR FRANK URGED BY ATLANTANS

Basil Stockbridge, Former Assistant to Solicitor General Dorsey, Signs Petition.

Thousands of Atlanta men, including practically every banker in the city, and Basil Stockbridge, a former aide-de-camp to Solicitor General Hugh M. Dorsey, have signed their names to petitions pleading for commutation for Leo M. Frank.

The circulation of these petitions in the city came to light Thursday at noon when one was passed among the guests at the regular luncheon of the Ad Men in the Hotel Ansley. Twenty-seven of the fifty present attached signatures.

Among them was Basil Stockbridge, a young lawyer, who at times aided the prosecutor of Frank in the various phases of the prosecution's famous fight.

There are said to be several hundred petitions in circulation in Atlanta alone, while there are hundreds of others in the state. The number in all parts of the country will probably never be known. Petitions and letters flooded Governor Slaton's office with each incoming mail.

It is predicted that there will be over a million names submitted to Governor Slaton and the prison commission in the appeal for commutation of Frank's sentence to life imprisonment. There are movements in progress all over the nation to prevail upon Georgia executive authorities in Frank's behalf.

The prison commission hearing has been set for May 31, and it is possible that the entire week will be occupied by it. Two days following the first session, Jim Cook, the chief witness against Frank, and the negro convicted of implication in the murder of Mary Phagan, will get his freedom, having served his year's sentence. He will get forty-four days off the twelve months for good behavior.

Urges Commutation.
Charleston, W. Va., May 20.—The West Virginia House today passed a joint resolution petitioning the Governor of Georgia to commute the sentence of Leo M. Frank to life imprisonment. The measure passed the senate yesterday.

ROCKEFELLER PUT ON GRILL BY WALSH

Charged That Juror Who Helped Convict Lawson of Murder Was Connected With Colorado Company.

Washington, May 20.—John D. Rockefeller Jr. testifies today before the industrial relations commission for a second time in its inquiry into the recent Colorado coal strike. He was subjected to searching examination by Chairman Walsh who questioned him about the personal attitude of himself and his father toward the striking miners. He will continue his testimony tomorrow.

After Mr. Rockefeller had read a statement relating to correspondence published since his appearance before the commission in New York, Chairman Walsh brought up the case of John R. Lawson, member of the executive board of the United Mine Workers of America, recently convicted of murder and sentenced to life imprisonment. He declared that W. W. Wilson, a juror had been identified as a traveling salesman for a biscuit company which had exclusive sales privileges in the Colorado Fuel and Iron company's plants. Mr. Rockefeller's attention also was called to allegations that employees of the Colorado company who testified against Lawson were detectives hired by the company and would go to the stake of justice if the allegations proved to be true.

COMMITTEE URGES $1,000,000 BONDS

Tech high school for boys and the erection of a modern new boys high school is proposed to be sold to the city by the Boys' High School Properties and Development Co. The school is situated on a lot which will offer playgrounds and an athletic field for the students.

Details of the proposed school improvement project were given to the board of education and the school board committee of the city.

The Grady hospital subcommittee recommended $3,000,000 bonds for hospital improvements, but finally agreed to cut this sum to $200,000. It is a private corporation for the hospital. It has a large number of people take advantage of the free services of the hospital when they were willing to pay for services if a bill were rendered.

Denier Influencing Governor

Mr. Rockefeller also put in the record the statement of denial he made to the press on April 15 last in answer to the charge that correspondence with the governor shows he exercised a personal influence that extended even to the statehouse at Denver and presumed to date letters that went out to the president of the United States and to the governors of the states over the objections of the governor of Colorado.

After quoting from the statement he made at the commission's hearings in New York last January to the effect that he never sought to do a political or to arbitrarily control any situation relative to the strike Mr. Rockefeller said that all policies as well as matters in detail were decided upon and carried out by the executive officers at Denver without asking, or advising, him.

Neither New York Associates nor I directed the conduct of the strike

Neither New York associates nor I directed the conduct of the strike, he declared. The strike progressed and we acquired fuller knowledge of conditions, our activities were directed toward making suggestions which we hoped might facilitate the termination of the controversy.

Mr. Rockefeller then gave the substance of every suggestion which he made to the Denver office during the strike, including letters and telegrams containing them. He grouped them under ten headings as follows:

That an investigation by three federal judges be instituted that provision be made for injured employees and their families, that disinterested mediators be appointed to interview the operators, that a plan be developed that disputed points other than union recognition be submitted to a board to be appointed by the president of the United States that a plan

GARRISON AND WOOD PLEAD FOR ARMAMENT

Their Speeches Remind Norman Angell of War Talk in Germany.

Mohawk Lake, N. Y., May 20.—The Lake Mohawk conference on international arbitration furnished the forum today for a warm debate on armament between Secretary of War Garrison and Norman Angell of New York on the other side.

Mr. Angell, who is one of the foremost advocates of disarmament and who recently returned from hospital service in the war zone declared that words of the secretary of war and the former chief of staff of the army urging the United States to make greater military preparations were precisely the speeches he had heard so many times in Germany.

Mr. Angell said that the trouble with most conferences of this kind is that they do not look at the conditions in the world as a whole, but only at the geographical remoteness that has made us safe.

Improved methods of transport he asserted, have increased the danger of war. This is one of the great causes of armament, and the greater efficiency of implements of war. When we have ceased to fight for our own interests, we shall cease to be worthy of our civilization. It is murder for you to send your boys to war unprepared when it is possible to train them.

Mr. Angell fairly ran to the speaker's stand to make his reply.

When the speaker's speech has been so welcome as in Germany, he cried, he declared that increased armament is a necessary condition of peace.

Here are two nations anxious to keep the peace by each being stronger than the other, he continued. This is an impossible situation. I do not believe that this will be the war that will end. The war that will end American armament will not help the world.

Mr. Garrison left no doubt of the fact that he favored strengthening the national defenses and making the United States ready to protect itself from an aggressor.

I am utterly out of sympathy, he declared, with the idea that we should neglect or postpone consideration of what is now the existing condition because of a hope or a belief or even conviction that it may be altered even radically in the future.

Our isolation he continued is geographical only. Modern conditions have eroded the interests of nations to be as correlated as those of families who have intermarried. The interests of many of the large nations today are inextricably interwoven with those of some or all of the others.

Self respect requires that we should be prepared to protect that which we cherish which not only includes our material possessions but that intangible something which makes up the distinctive nation in the eyes of the world.

The roots of war were discussed in a paper by Oscar S. Straus of New York formerly ambassador to Turkey by the city. Mr. Straus was unexpectedly at home yesterday, but his paper was read by the secretary.

PORTUGAL'S MINISTRY HAS BEEN DISSOLVED

Lisbon, May 20.—(Via Paris)—The new ministry having definitely formed a revolutionary committee has been dissolved. The capital remains calm.

Needs of City Parks

The committee investigating the needs of the city parks recommended $2,000,000 bonds. But the bond committee decided that many of the improvements could be delayed. They were of the opinion, however, that the city should be rebuilt and that the structure should be of concrete and of permanent construction. They also proposed the erection of a public museum in connection with this plan. The cyclorama would have an income of more than $4,000 annually and it is believed that property equipped it would mean an income of more than $20,000 which would take care of the interest of many of the bonds.

On representing the Real Estate Association appeared before the committee and urged that at least $100,000 bonds be issued to provide small parks and benches in the downtown districts. He said the real estate men had agreed that certain property should be condemned and some small parks and that it would give impetus to the real estate business and enhance the values of property near the proposed parks to that degree that the increase in tax returns would take care of the interest on the bonds. The committee looked with favor on the plan but voted to leave it out of the bond package lest it endanger other more pressing matters.

Chairman Thompson reporting on the needs of the sewer system stated that a careful canvass of the situation had been made and that it would require $1,254,413 to complete the city's entire sewer system. He also reported on the former sewer bond issue. Since Atlanta's percentage of the county's taxes is more than any other city, he recommended that the city should take care of the remaining expense.

Saving for City

Chief Cummings of the fire department told the committee that with the present department providing for 100 stations in service he could save the city $30,000 annually if the entire department was reorganized. The cost is estimated at about $150,000.

The committee that investigated the fire and police department asked for $250,000 with which to motorize the department and establish five new stations. The sum was cut to $150,000 by the bond committee.

No bonds will be recommended for the police department although the committee recommended the creation of two substations. They did not furnish an estimate of the cost of the proposed stations.

The compiled report and recommendations of the bond committee will be submitted to the general council which will meet in special session Monday afternoon. Council will be asked to authorize the city to proceed at the earliest date possible under the law.

Bond Commission

Along with the compiled report to general council will go the resolution of the council providing for the creation of a bond commission of fifteen men as outlined in The Constitution Thursday.

The resolution contemplates the election of two members of the proposed commission from council, one from the aldermanic board and two representatives from the city at large, to be elected by general council. Two members to be named by the board of Trade, a representative of the chamber of commerce, a representative of the Retail Merchants' association, one from the real estate exchange, one from the Retail Grocers' association, and one to be nominated by the editor-in-chief of the three daily local newspapers.

The committee looked with favor on the plan since it will mean a representative membership and a body in which every interest will participate. The resolution also provides that the mayor and president of the board of education shall be elected at the same time and that the terms of office of each member shall be two years.

Besides expending to be procured from the sale of the proposed bonds, the commission will control all bond moneys now in the possession of the city.

LUSITANIA NOT CRUISER, ADMITS GERMAN PAPER

Amsterdam May 20—(Via London)—Numerous incorrect statements regarding the Lusitania which have appeared in the German press are pointed out by Captain Kueselwetter in The Berlin Lokal Anzeiger. He declares the Lusitania was not an auxiliary cruiser, but she was a hostile vessel and therefore a lawful prize.

The cargo was composed mainly of contraband the writer continues and was liable to condemnation. Under the law a ship and cargo if it is impossible to tow them into a harbor, may be destroyed. Moreover the crew could be classified as franc tireurs, thus standing outside the law and making their lives forfeit.

Every German vessel is justified in expecting an attack contrary to law from every British merchantman even if unarmed for the British government has encouraged such attacks by offering rewards for them. Therefore every British ship with its crew is liable to destruction at sea fully.

Supper-Dance at "Glenwood"

Beautiful Social Event

A supper-dance given last night by Mr. and Mrs. Morris Brandon, at their hospitable home on Pace's Ferry road, assembled a bright company of eighty guests, mostly among the young people and the young married set. Miss Eunice Jackson, of Nashville, who is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Maddox, was guest of honor.

An elegant buffet supper was served at 8 o'clock, the guests seated on the veranda, which is picturesque, with flowering plants and hanging baskets. Electric lights shone through Japanese lanterns, and the lanterns bordered the drive and were strung among the trees.

The living room and dining room made continuous space for dancing, and at one end of the dining room punch sin will read an equally delightful short play by Anatole France, "The Man Who Married a Dumb Wife," which has had great success in New York this past season under the production of Granville Barker. Mrs. Jarnagin is a charming reader, and the evening, which is wholly comic in tone, will form one of the most humorous of the series planned for the recreation of Atlanta's busy people.

Suffrage School Notes.

The suffrage school that is being conducted by the Atlanta Equal Suffrage association will hold this week's session this afternoon at 3 o'clock in the parlors of the Ansley hotel. Mrs. Amelia Woodall will preside.

Among the questions to be discussed and answered at this session will be the following:

What power does the initiative, referendum and the recall give the people?

How can a constitutional law be obtained?

Why is a constitutional law better than a statutory?

What Georgia state board of control for her state institutions?

How must city ordinances compare with state laws?

What oath does every official take? What is gambling, according to law? Is Georgia a white slave traffic law?

What are a woman's dower rights in Georgia?

Addresses will be made by Miss Rosa Lowe, Mrs. W. McLaughlin and others. A cordial invitation is extended to everyone interested.

Recital at Barili School.

A recital will be given at the Barili School of Music, Saturday afternoon, May 22, at 2:30 o'clock.

Dr. Brannon to Speak.

Dr. Rebecca Brannon, of Atlanta, who is well known for her literary work, as well as in the medical world, will make the address of the afternoon at a meeting of the DeKalb County County Suffrage association, which will be held on next Tuesday afternoon in the courthouse at Decatur.

"Dinner at Six."

An interesting playlet, entitled, "Dinner at Six," will be given tonight at the Harris Street Presbyterian church, corner of Harris and Spring streets, for the benefit of the Ladies Aid Society. Miss Mildred Parks and Miss Lilla Lynan will sing. An admission of 15 cents will be charged.

Cantata.

On Sunday evening, May 23, the Ponce de Leon Avenue Baptist church choir will give the first time in Atlanta, "The Ten Virgins," a beautiful sacred cantata by Alfred R. Gault. This work is dedicated to the church choir and choral societies of America.

Certified Holstein Milk

IT IS NOW considered by leading physicians and many intelligent persons that the healthful properties of Holstein milk, yielded as it is by a large, strong and vigorous race of cattle, possessing great vitality, and of a make-up on the line of human milk, constitute it the ideal human food for infants, invalids and feeble persons, and especially for those whose diet is largely composed of milk. Holstein milk is easily digested and assimilated by the most delicate stomachs.

CALUMET BAKING POWDER

NOT MADE BY THE TRUST

Modern Methods Are Best

Mammy now uses Calumet Baking Powder instead of sour milk and soda, or the cheap big-can kind, because it is more convenient—because she knows from experience that the baking will be lighter, daintier and more uniformly raised—that it will keep fresh longer.

Calumet is certain of good results—it is purer and more wholesome than the cheap big-can kind, and more economical in the end.

Give Calumet one trial. If it fails to give you absolute satisfaction return it and get your money back. If you don't get Calumet you don't get the best.

Great Sketch Coming To Forsyth Next Week; Makes Plea for Peace

Not in the history of the theater has a play which is acted in thirty minutes or three hours so red such an emphatic plea for War Brides, a woman devotedly devoted and opening an argument for universal peace.

War Brides is by Marion Craig Wentworth. The playing rights were secured by Virginia who declared the piece to be the most popular she has come in contact with during her entire career. So appealing was it that she herself created the part of Joan and so wonderfully successful was the little piece that her companies were immediately formed to present it.

The company that presents War Brides has been especially selected by Madame Nazimova. The role of Joan has been entrusted to Lida Varesa a remarkable emotional actress. This remarkable one act play leads the Forsyth bill next week.

work on the offense that made the victory possible. Roy doubled with one on in the fourth. Then showed the entire Little Rock team up by stealing third, while Gibson was tossing the pellet back to East, beating the pitcher's relay to third easily.

Jenkins then got a base on balls and stole second. Gibson made a blat to peg to second then pegged to third. Moran here showed splendid judgment when he caught the pitcher's relay to third easily.

Instead of sliding into the bag with a hook slide, Moran went in directly to the bag, getting between Elwert and the throw and the wisdom of his move was at once apparent. Gibson's peg nipped Roy on the shoulder, carried to the bleacher fence, and before Baker recovered, Jenkins also scattered in.

Jenkins aided Kelly and the Crackers by some splendid pegging to the bases, nipping three would-be base stealers with deadly aim. Sid Smith, who was cavorting around the key-stone in lieu of Otto Williams being laid up with a bad mit, taking the pegs and tagging the runners like he had been used to it all his life.

Jenkins in little of moment to regulate other than to remark unprophetic that will let a ball game like Thursday drag for two hours—well, what's the use? Here is the box score.

Herb Kelly Uses Brush; Crackers Take the Last; Moran and Jenkins Star

Herbert Kelly's southpaw first set the Travelers back Thursday afternoon, with nary a counter, and the Crackers copped the final game of the series, 2 to 0, giving them three of the four games played.

Kelly was opposed by one East, who also twirled a very creditable game. In fact, as far as actual hits went he twirled a better game than Kelly, but the Cracker southpaw received yeoman assistance from Roy Moran and Joe Jenkins, and these two worthies kept his slate clean.

Considering the few hits and the fact that but two runs were scored the game was dull and uninteresting, dragging along for two hours with little life or pep, shown by either side.

But who can show any pep with such an ump as Stratton? He is behind the pitcher? He's a huge joke. He started to guessing at balls and strikes in the first inning, and continued to guess throughout the game. Now and then he would guess one right, but in the main he guessed just the opposite.

Where Bob Baugh picked up this fellow Lord only knows, he could not umpire for us if we were president of the Board of Education. He's got no voice, and in the second no pepper. He umpires like a lot of ball players we know play in the field, just do it and draw the money, that's all.

Stratton lined poor old George Merritt for too strenuous coaching. He ought to fine himself or some one ought to arrest him for taking money under false pretenses. He's absolutely the worst we have ever seen. And there have been some bad ones in this league.

One in the press box could tell what he called a pitch, as he'd call it a ball and then swing up his right hand, and a strike and use his left, then he'd get both of them right now and then, but seldom the decision.

Moran the Star. Roy Moran was the chief thorn in the side of the Travelers. In the outfield he outbatted a couple of crackling catches that robbed Bill Elwert of extra-base clouts. But it was his
