

His Patience Exhausted Wilson Will Take Steps To Bring Peace to Mexico

For the Last Time He Will Warn the Leaders of Warring Factions That "Intolerable Conditions" Must Cease.

INTERVENTION CERTAIN, WASHINGTON DECLARES

Forthcoming Statement Believed to Be Forerunner of Drastic Action—Wilson Resolved That Mexican Civilians Shall Not Be Starved.

Washington, May 28.—President Wilson has decided to serve notice on the warring factions in Mexico that conditions in that country have become intolerable and that unless they themselves compose the situation on some other means may be applied to accomplish the result.

The first intimation of the president taking this step came in an appeal issued from President Wilson is held of the American Red Cross setting forth that due to several years of internal disturbances in many parts of Mexico have reduced the people to the verge of starvation and urging contributions to relief funds.

Later the white house gave out the following: When the president's appeal for aid for the Mexicans was issued it was expected that the warring factions would be induced to accept the terms of the president's appeal. It is believed that the president is now prepared to take the next step in the settlement of the Mexican situation.

It is at the white house and state department declined to say what the president's statement contained but it is believed that recognition of the fact that the present action it was said was to be taken to effect that the Mexicans arrive in an early settlement of their troubles. It is believed that the president is now prepared to take the next step in the settlement of the Mexican situation.

High officials referred to the president's forthcoming proclamation as not a warning of immediate intervention. The impression of the executive parties would be that it was a warning of the president's intention to take the next step in the settlement of the Mexican situation.

FIGHT THREATENED ON FINANCE SHEET BY TWO FRAMERS

Chairman Farlinger and Alderman McDonald Declare Committee Has Anticipated Too Much Revenue.

$83,391 IS PROVIDED TO IMPROVE SCHOOLS

Money for Schools Meets Approval, But Farlinger and McDonald Object to Other Appropriations.

Rumblings of an approaching storm in general council was heard Friday when Chairman A. W. Farlinger and Alderman C. McDonald of the finance committee announced that would not sign the June money sheet which was completed late in the afternoon carrying $172,000 anticipated from unearned revenue.

The two members in question contend that the committee has anticipated too far and that while they are willing to be reasonable they are not willing to be unreasonable just for the sake of writing into the sheet certain improvements the ward leaders have asked.

The committee provided $83,391 for public school improvements and salaries of twenty six additional teachers for the high schools. The board of education will vote on the $172,000.

After plugging in some departments financial matters and increasing anticipated revenues from various departments the committee finally balanced the sheet at $1,470,000. In January general council voted on only $4,000,000 from all sources and only members of general council declare this sum will not be exceeded.

The sheet as agreed on carries $138,000 additional to the appropriations made in the January sheet. The $138,000 anticipated takes care of the addition of $1,000,000 to the sheet.

When members of the finance committee sought to pludge each member to signing the sheet and giving it his unqualified support when it goes before general council Chairman Farlinger and Alderman McDonald said they could not do so.

It is believed that the president is now prepared to take the next step in the settlement of the Mexican situation. The impression of the executive parties would be that it was a warning of the president's intention to take the next step in the settlement of the Mexican situation.

Quintuple Hanging Stopped in Arizona; Men to Hang Singly

Fight Lost to Save Five Men, But Board of Pardons Objects to Hanging in a Bunch.

Florence, Ariz., May 28.—Five Mexicans sentenced to hang for murder today at almost the last minute were saved by the board of pardons and paroles.

With every legal obstacle to their hanging set aside the board granted a nine week respite that the men might be brought singly instead of together and so recommended to Governor Hunt who had opposed inflicting the death penalty with every resource at his command.

Under the law as it now stands the governor can grant a respite only on recommendation of the board of pardons and paroles. The board of pardons and paroles today recommended that the five prisoners be hung singly.

The board of pardons granted a respite of nine weeks in order that the men might be hanged singly. The mercy plea of William J. Bryan was rejected by the board.

The decision was explained in a resolution adopted after a lengthy session which stated that as the secretary of state had seen fit to recommend a heavy fine for the possible effect of the hanging, it might have been better to have recommended a fine out of respect due Mr. Bryan's delay and responsible office.

When members of the finance committee sought to pludge each member to signing the sheet and giving it his unqualified support when it goes before general council Chairman Farlinger and Alderman McDonald said they could not do so.

It is believed that the president is now prepared to take the next step in the settlement of the Mexican situation. The impression of the executive parties would be that it was a warning of the president's intention to take the next step in the settlement of the Mexican situation.

17.8 INCHES FIXED AS SEATING SPACE FOR A PASSENGER

New York, May 28.—The public service commission after an exhaustive investigation adopted today a resolution setting forth that every passenger on New York's elevated subway and surface cars who gets a seat is entitled to 17.8 inches of space. The transportation companies were notified that in future they must not crowd this much seating space to a passenger.

The commission had conducted 800 experiments to determine how much space a passenger needs.

and that while the ambassador had sent his own conjectures nothing that could be cited an outline had been received and that he was not aware that any official information had been given as to the contents of the reply.

The general trend of comment in official and diplomatic quarters was that if the preliminary note from Germany proposed an agreement on the facts of various cases mentioned in the American note there would follow immediately a counter-proposal from President Wilson for a suspension of submarine warfare which might endanger American lives of vessels while the diplomatic discussion was in progress.

Lusitania Not Armed. The German government according to published reports is represented as intending to inquire first whether the Lusitania was armed or unarmed and whether she carried millions of war munitions.

The position of the United States government is that the Lusitania could not be armed from an American port and did not resist capture. Whether or not the vessel carried contraband of any character did not in the American view deprive her of the right under the rules of international law universally acknowledged to be given an opportunity to transfer crew and passengers to a place of safety before being destroyed.

Officials pointed out, moreover that the British liner by careful investigation before sailing was found to be unarmed and that there was no official record of the fact that she carried millions of war munitions.

This was shown on her manifest published the day of sailing. Collector Frank T. Field at the port of New York who was in Washington to sign a certificate of that his assistants had in a thorough investigation of the Lusitania and that she had no guns aboard a vessel in a vessel or dismounted.

Case of the Nebraska. Officials still were non-committal. The Nebraska was captured by the British liner by careful investigation before sailing was found to be unarmed and that there was no official record of the fact that she carried millions of war munitions.

Invokes God's Reward for Pellagra Cure

Jumbo Va.—J. H. Suterwhite writes: I want to thank you for what you have done for me. You have cured my wife. God bless you in your work. I hope some day to see you. I never see you I hope to meet you in heaven. God will reward you for your grand and noble work.

There is no longer any doubt that pellagra can be cured. Don't let it until it is too late. It is so easy to consult the resourceful. Bough. The symptoms are red lips, a burn skin peeling off, sore mouth, the lips, throat and tongue a flaming red with mucus and chinking and a ston and nausea either diarrhoea or constipation.

There is hope for Pellagra's big. Free book on Pellagra and an abridged remedy for Pellagra that has a list of been found. Address: American Commission on Pellagra, Box 207, Tampa, Fla. Remembering money is refused in case where the remedy fails to cure.

BURKE GETS IMMUNITY BY BETRAYING PARTNER

Salas Convicted of Plot to Defraud Government in Panama Canal Contracts.

New York, May 28.—Jacob L. Salas, a Colon tobacco merchant indicted with John Burke former manager of the Panama railroad's commissary department and Ricardo Bermudez, another merchant on a charge of conspiring to defraud the government in connection with tobacco contracts was found guilty in the federal court here today. Sentence was not pronounced. Although indicted jointly the court granted separate trials for the men. Burke became a witness for the government and testified that Salas and Bermudez were the authors of the conspiracy. The jury reached its verdict a half hour after Burke had delivered his charge. Earlier in the day the defense introduced further testimony in an effort to prove that the government was not defrauded when John Burke accepted $20,000 commissions in purchasing supplies from Salas and after calling several character witnesses for Salas rested his case.

Queen or Dairy Maid Ambition the Same

In the expectant mother's mind there is no limit to what the future has in store, and yet during the period of expectancy, much depends upon the physical comfort of the mother. One of the best aids is a remedy known as "Mother's Friend." Applied over the muscles, it penetrates to the net work of nerves, relieves the pain incident to stretching of cords and ligaments, makes the infant, innocuous daily comfort, restful nights, a calm mind and pleasant anticipation. You use it with your own hands, apply it as needed, and at once feel a sense of relief. Mothers who have learned all this from experience tell of the blessed relief from morning sickness, the absence of strain and the undoubted healthful influence imparted to the coming baby.

Get a bottle of this splendid help today. Phone your nearest druggist or send for it. Then write Bradford Regulator Co., 404 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., for a valuable book of instruction for expectant mothers. "Mother's Friend" is recommended everywhere by women who have used it. And you can read some very interesting letters if you write for this book.

GAINS CLAIMED BY AUSTRILIANS

Vienna, May 28.—(Via London, May 28.)—In an effort to check further advances of the allied troops in the River Danube, a war office statement declares that the Austro-Hungarian army yesterday were brought forward from the north. The text of the communication follows: Yesterday Russian reinforcements came from the north attempted on several sections of the front east of the River Danube, by means of violent attacks, to check further advance of the allied troops. Hostile attacks both day and night miscarried, and the allied troops gained more ground on both sides of the River Danube. Near Sieniawa (about 100 miles from Przemysl) the allied troops were compelled to retreat to the west bank of the Danube before a strong Russian force, and compelled to leave some guns on the east bank.

DEDICATION EXERCISES TO BE HELD TUESDAY

On account of the inclemency of the weather the dedication of the two pillars erected at the entrance of the home for the incurables in memory of Mrs. J. A. Fisher was postponed until Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Mrs. Floyd Meitzler who has been active in contributing to the growth of this institution will preside over the dedicatory ceremonies. Bishop C. K. Nelson, of the River View Episcopal church, will be the speaker of the occasion. The two pillars of granite stand one on either side of the entrance of the home for the incurables. They were bought with money raised by various means, largely through the instrumentality of Mrs. J. A. Fisher, chairman of the fund committee. They commemorated the services Mrs. Fisher rendered this institution throughout the years she was connected with its interests.

Fifty New, Fresh White Hats at $5.00 and $7.50

White hats are good, very, very good this night now, so upon her return from New York the other day the chief of the staff of the Millinery Section set our work room to making up this lot of fifty white hats after models that were in great favor in New York.

They are ready, prettier, smarter than anything we have seen at their prices.

We say white hats—there are a number of white and black hats among them.

Trimmings are flowers, wings, ribbons and fruit. But it is not so much what the trimmings are as the way they are used—there's where the distinctiveness comes in. Among these are quite a few Panamas.

Hats for Going Away, for Street Wear At $1.00 At $2.50

Originally they were many times their present prices. A Chamberlin-Johnson-DuBose Co. clearaway.

Dark colors, mostly—kinds women who will be going on vacations will want. Large hats, small hats and medium sized hats—a splendid choice and wonderful savings.

New Sports Hats $1.00 to $7.00

Palm Beach cloths, golfines, ratines, felts, straws and cretonnes. Many soft of crown with brims that can be bent this way and that—many inclined to be tailorish and severe. They are the new and favored styles of New York.

Little Clearaways Bring Big Savings Junior Department (Third Floor)

Children's Coats Half Price

Were $7.50, at $3.75. Were $8.50, at $4.75. Were $10.00, at $5.00. Were $12.50, at $6.25.

Sizes two to six years. Silks, serges and Shepherd checks. High waist lines and long waisted effects—navy blues predominate.

Children's $5 to $6.50 Coats $3.65

Sizes two to six years. That these coats were $5.00 and $6.50 in our stocks tells much—but seeing them will tell more. Really remarkable values at their former prices, they go now into a clearaway at $3.65. Mostly serges—a wide choice as to styles.

Girls' $10 to $11.50 and $12.50 Coats $6.95

Sizes six to fourteen years. Chosen from all our coats of shepherd checks, navy serges and novelty mixtures—many styles—with raised waist lines, sports coats. Priced now in time for those who will soon be going a-vacationing.

Children's Finer White Dresses $3.65

They Were $5 to $6.50. Sizes one to six years. Daintiness to the tip end of imagination! Of sheer batistes and crisp fresh organdies they are made as lovely as can be imagined, with embroideries and laces. Long waisted and Empire styles.

Twenty-Five $10 to $12.50 Linen Dresses $5

Sizes Six to Fourteen Years. In white, navy, Copenhagen and brown linen, new this season, so they show style features that children and mothers will both like.

The Clearaway of Women's Low Shoes and Pumps Continues Today, $5.00 to $8.00 Values $3.85

All styles, from our stocks, that have become broken in sizes—among them many attractive color combinations.

JUDGE R. T. DANIEL.

Announcement of the death of Judge Robert T. Daniel of Griffin, while attending the grand lodge of Georgia Odd Fellows at Fitzgerald will be the cause of wide spread and genuine regret over the state and outside of Georgia wherever Odd Fellowship has a hold.

Death came to Judge Daniel in the midst of performance of duty. He had just closed his address as grand sire to the Odd Fellows of Georgia when he sank stricken, in his chair.

It is not alone through his secret order connections which in one direction have carried him to the pinnacle of Odd Fellowship that he is well known to Georgians.

There is scarcely a community in Georgia where his death will not be a subject of sincere regret.

"WAR BRIDES"

The power of the drama is being surely and strongly tested in Marion Craig Wentworth's "War Brides" which is stirring an interest that has in it the universal appeal.

The European war has brought the woman's question to its most definite form of expression among the warring nations and has raised the cry of the women of the world against war and for universal peace.

This demand is reaching through the nation and the state to every community. It has its practical illustration in the municipality where woman has so clearly the burden laid upon her of not only looking after the child in the home, but her care must follow him out into life.

she has no opportunity of decisive action in the most common place civic interests which affect her child's life

And the day is not far distant when the womanhood of the country will be given at least some of the rights that have been so long denied them as the custodians of their children's welfare

THE FINANCIAL TABLE TURNS.

The deplorable financial condition of the European nations now engaged in hostilities is already apparent in currency depreciation indicated in the marked advance in the rate of exchange.

Similar conditions are noted as to British and French exchange. Normally 518 1/2 francs are the equivalent of our gold dollar today the exchange rate is 540 and like advance or even greater is noted in connection with every one of the nations now at war.

This is substantially the situation of all the allies. It does not mean that financial exhaustion by any means is at hand, but the balance of current power of the United States as a creditor and banker nation in permitting sterling, francs, etc. to fall as low as 47 1/2 last week the lowest quotation in forty years.

On top of this we are sending shipload after shipload of war munitions food and clothing to the allied countries.

There is a serious scientific indictment of the summer belt by no less an authority than Dr. W. J. Mayo, surgeon of Rochester, Minn. who is quoted as saying that appendicitis has increased from 300 to 400 per cent on account of the use of belts instead of suspenders.

THE SUMMER BELT

The San Antonio Republic says the doctor who holds this opinion is recognized as one of the most successful surgeons in the world and that therefore what he says on the subject is entitled to great consideration.

Anyhow some of the old timers will recall the fact that in the days when gallstones were worn generally such a disease as appendicitis was unknown.

THE PEOPLE WANT THE NEWS

Recently a conscientious war correspondent who had suffered from a too severe censorship wrote in his wrath: God help the censor when the war is over and he goes in search of a job.

In this connection The Boston Transcript probably is not alone in its opinion that all the troubles which now confront the British government can be traced directly or indirectly to its censorship of news.

The censorship has been pushed to such extremes that editors and reporters of obscure provincial papers have suddenly found themselves through being haled into court and fined.

That has been the state of affairs all along. The public has been kept in the dark. A more liberal policy in regard to the war situation is now in sight.

Looks like business now Italy has started the war phonograph Poets singing of 'the free sea mean, of course when the submarines are not using it.

Incidentally the vice president talks like a man who is earning his vacation.

In an address made by Filipe Root which he was serving in the senate he spoke earnestly and rather sorrowfully of the fact that the various sections of the American continent are not yet united by a network of railroads and that the information which is being furnished to the other which they should have Senator Root believes that much of the sectional irritation that sometimes amounts almost to antagonism would not exist if the various sections were united by a network of railroads or reasonable information.

SUPPORT IS URGED FOR REGIONAL BANK

Georgia Bankers at Savannah Told by W. P. G. Harding They Must Give Institution Better Backing.

Savannah Ga. May 28.—(Special)—A plea for stronger support for the Atlanta regional bank made by W. P. G. Harding, member of the federal reserve system of Washington featured the opening session of the twenty-seventh annual convention of Georgia bankers here today.

Of account of the prejudice which the state bankers in this section of the country have against the federal reserve system, the regional bank in Atlanta is the smallest in the country, declared Mr. Harding.

Mr. Harding called attention to the fact that the board has authority to reduce the number of regional banks leaving the inference that it may be necessary to do away with the bank in Atlanta unless it becomes more popular.

The imperial state of Georgia is not used to bringing up the rear of the procession, said Mr. Harding, and I don't believe it will continue to do so in the matter of the reserve bank. There is a feeling among the smaller bankers that the federal reserve bank will interfere with their profit. This is one of the chief reasons why many of the state banks do not go into the system.

Mr. Harding said that regulation of interest rates is needed. He suggested that congress make necessary amendments to existing laws so as to conform to state laws, control interest rates.

Mr. M. D. O'Connell, president of the American Bankers' Association, said that the election be made unanimous.

Mr. Smith was in turn elected to fill a second vacancy for a short term.

Mr. M. D. O'Connell stressed the need of an American in a great nation.

It is imperative, he pointed out, that transportation facilities be provided in the country's trade to continue to expand. He voiced the hope that the United States would keep out of the international war.

President Lee G. Council of American made an address which was greeted with interest and suggestions and comments upon the subject.

DR. WHITE TELLS WHY HE LEAVES LOCAL PASTORATE

In leaving the pastorate of the Second Baptist church, which he has held for fifteen years, to take charge of the First Baptist church of Anderson, S. C., Dr. John E. White states that this move has been caused by his wish to do more study and to study than the many duties of the present charge allow him. He also states that he expects to return to Atlanta in three or four years.

In addition to fulfilling the duties of his pastorate here he said, I am continually being asked to attend board meetings, take part in movements of public and semi-public character, and to the furtherance of worthy enterprises and to minister to the needs of the community which it is natural and right that a minister should perform.

Among other writings Dr. White is planning to write two books. One dealing with the south's place in the nation and the nation's opportunity as a world power will contain his lecture, "Thinking White in the South About the Negro," which he recently delivered at Virginia university. The other work will be a book of sermons on "The Religion of Jesus."

Dr. White will preach his last sermon at the Second Baptist church July 25. During August he will be the guest of a deacon of the First Baptist church of Philadelphia and will preach at this church on the Sundays of this month.

FEDERAL DIVORCE LAW DEFEATED IN DEBATE

H. W. Chambers Wins Gold Medal in Contest After Winning Second Place in 1914.

At the annual prize debate held Friday night by the students of the Atlanta Law school, Hewitt W. Chambers, deputy marshal of the municipal court and a member of the senior class, was awarded the gold medal for making the best debate on the question of a national divorce law.

After a lively contest over the question of the evening, with many unique and varied arguments being presented on both sides of the question by the six speakers, the judges awarded the decision on the debate itself to the negative which was the side upheld by Mr. Chambers. The principal argument of Mr. Chambers in opposing national legislation on the divorce question was that the control of this problem should be close to the people—in the state courts—and that each state could enact the divorce law best suited to the life and needs of the people of the community.

The other speakers on the negative were Francis A. Pavesich and Samuel A. Loker. The speakers on the affirmative side were Henry Grady Bell, Herbert M. Blanton and I. Leonard Crawford. The judges of the contest were Dr. J. H. Hall, secretary of the Georgia Peace society, Judge George L. Bell, of the superior court, and John Y. Smith, representative from Fulton county in the state legislature. The gold medal contested for by the students is offered annually by Hamilton Douglas, dean of the law school. At the contest one year ago Mr. Chambers won second place. W. L. Law being awarded the medal for the best debate on that occasion.

To accommodate his many friends who wish to attend the funeral the CENTRAL OF GEORGIA RAILWAY has arranged to sell tickets to Griffin and return at $1.00 per capita for the train leaving Atlanta Terminal Station at 12:30 p. m. Sunday, May 30. Tickets will be good for a return on any Sunday afternoon and evening train. Special coaches will be provided. W. H. Fogg, District Passenger Agent, Phone Main 490—(adv.)

Will Repair Recorder's Room. Judge James W. Meade recorder pro tem appeared before the committee and secured an appropriation of $500 for repairs at the recorder's court room. He stated that with this sum he will have the room repaired and the quarters made more sanitary. He stated that three burglar alarms had been disconnected last week because the wires had been cut by the street car wires which were on Peachtree street and a repair against this in knowing that it would be for the benefit of the waiting room with negro waiters.

Members of the committee were surprised to find Attorney C. H. Kelley, one of the first to arrive Friday and he remained in conference with them through out the day. On Thursday afternoon he slipped and fell on the wood block paving on Broad street and sustained a dislocated shoulder, although his physician has advised him to stay at home he said he could not afford to remain away from the meetings of the finance committee. He was wearing his shoulder in a brace and his arm in a sling.

When the completed sheet is sent to general or mail it will show the following appropriations added to the January sheet: Public schools $83,391; police $500; streets $1,120.50; contingent fund $200; interest on bonds $2,000; water works $1,000; cemeteries $700; parks, $2,500; relief department $100; Battle Hill tuberculosis sanitarium, $2,000; sewer $4,000; sanitary department, $6,100; health department $1,400; law department $1,000.

In case of $130,001.76. These additional appropriations mean a total increase of $138,961.76 which will increase the total disbursements for the year to $1,389,961.76.

From general taxes for 1914 $55,500; 1915 $50,000; license $10,000; marshals' deeds $20,000; insurance returns $1,000; meat and beer license $2,000; general taxes for 1914 and previous years $10,317.50; Grady hospital fees $2,500; sewer assessments for 1914 $12,500; water works $2,000; street on five $5,000; street and fees $900; lateral sewers $7,400.49.

Mr. Chamberlain contends that the committee want too far in anticipating so much from the taxes and the water works department is neglected. That neither of the departments would be able to make good on collections to balance the state treasury. He will, he contends, stand to cut down the debt on these departments.

The Troublers Of ATLANTA

Men and Religion Bulletin No. 171

"When Ahab saw Elijah, Ahab said--
"Art thou he that troubleth Israel?"
"He answered--
"I have not troubled Israel: but thou, and thy father's house in that ye have forsaken the commandments of the Lord, and thou hast followed Baalam." --I Kings, XVIII, 17-18

God gave Ahab position and power.
Ahab misused both. He betrayed his trust.
Elijah only told the truth.
The public official, Ahab's sin, and not the prophet of God, was to blame for Israel's shame.
The facts are not different today.
Back of the negro shot in the bar, the boy killed before the door of the Owl's club, the man dead at the library door, and the one slain last Sunday morning—
Back of these, contributing to them, Atlanta's shame, are locker clubs and saloons, behind which stand the complacent public officials who granted them permits to break the law.
The citizen who begs the Mayor and Council to Refuse to license law-breakers to break the law is not responsible for the trouble, but those public officials who, entrusted with power, in spite of the law of Georgia, license them to sell intoxicants in defiance of law.

No little has been said of men misrepresenting Atlanta and her spirit of hospitality.
But does one represent Atlanta truly when he sends to the law-makers of Georgia an invitation to make use of the law-breaking facilities of a corporation in the capital of the state?
Is it Southern hospitality, or an insult to our guest and a slur upon Atlanta to invite one to make use here of those things which the law of Georgia defines as blind-tigers?
Grant that Tolstoi, Ehot of Harvard, the Emperor of Germany, the Czar of Russia, English leaders, William Jennings Bryan and other great thinkers are hopelessly provincial in advocating total abstinence—
If your state has forbidden the sale of liquor, does it—

DO THE CAPITAL OF GEORGIA GOOD to have public officials from the highest to the lowest, and leading citizens showing contempt for the law of your state within the walls of clubs where guests from other countries or states may hear men sneer—

"The law—it matters not—here you can get what you want to drink?"
Do those who beg them to desist—
Or, do they, who thus encourage law-breaking, cause trouble to our city and state?
Centuries ago, Elijah asked—
"How Long Go Ye Limping Between the Two Sides?"
"If the Lord be God, follow Him; but if Baal, then follow him."
You only lame yourself trying to straddle a fence, striving to walk with one foot in the camp of God, the other with the hosts of hell, an impassable barrier between.
You cannot do it.
And if you follow Baal—if you choose lawlessness, when worry and agony come, as they will, to you and yours, blame not the Church of the living God for proclaiming Truth, but know that, when you turned your back upon right and left the law of God, you began trouble for you and your house.
Choose God.
Tomorrow, come to His Church.
The Executive Committee

COTTON ACREAGE SHARPLY REDUCED

Journal of Commerce Puts Cut at From 10 to 15 Per Cent—Condition of Crop Is Good.

New York, May 28.—(Special)—According to a report to the Journal of Commerce, the acreage of cotton in the United States for the year 1915 is estimated to be 8,000,000 acres, a decrease of 10 to 15 per cent from the 1914 crop. The condition of the crop is reported to be good, and the yield is expected to be satisfactory. The report also states that the price of cotton is expected to be higher than last year due to the reduction in acreage.
