MONARCHY IN CHINA REGARDED AS CERTAIN

Such Is Interpretation Placed on Resignation of Vice President.

Shanghai, China, September 2.—Li Yuan Heng has resigned as vice president of the Chinese republic. The interpretation placed upon his act is that it is preparatory to the establishment of a monarchy which is popularly regarded as virtually certain.

A dispatch from Pekin last night said that the failure of Li Yuan Heng, who has been virtually a prisoner in the palace grounds for many months, to attend yesterday's session of the advisory council had been made the basis of a sensational story published in the Peking newspapers.

STODDARD TO LEAD GEORGIA TOURISTS

Preliminary Details of the Second "Seeing Georgia" Tour Mapped Out Thursday by the Executive Committee.

Two Studebaker cars—one a scout and the other carrying the movie man—will leave the chamber of commerce building at 1 o'clock this morning to see how the land lies for Georgia's second Seeing Georgia tour.

The executive committee in charge of the tour held a meeting in Atlanta Thursday afternoon and mapped out the preliminary details for the tour.

These two cars which were furnished by A. C. Webb, southern district manager for the Studebaker corporation will be the first to go over the proposed route which leads generally from Macon to Athens to Commerce to Gainesville to Tallahassee to Dalton to Rome to Marietta and to Atlanta.

On next Thursday morning, the second scout car carrying Pacemaker Bill Stoddard will leave Atlanta to go over the course and definitely fix the official route.

The cars which leave here this morning will carry signal boards which will be placed in conspicuous places all along the route.

The boards will be in five colors—white, red, pink, green and blue. Their significance will be as follows: White—Danger.

Green—The road is in good condition and reasonably safe.

Blue—The road is in fine shape and thirty-five miles an hour may be made in any car without danger of accident.

It is the belief of the committee that this system of signal boards properly observed by drivers, will largely eliminate the possibility of accident.

The executive committee Thursday afternoon chose Big Bill Stoddard of Atlanta, the popular pacemaker of the last tour as pacemaker for the coming tour.

A. C. Webb, southern district manager for the Studebaker corporation tendered the committee the use of a brand new Studebaker for the proposed tour, and also offered for the officials of the tour Studebakers will also be used for all scouting purposes preliminary to the tour.

TAFT MAKES PLEA FOR PREPAREDNESS

Advocates Larger Army and Navy and Better Coast Defenses, Financed by Renewal of War Tax.

San Francisco, September 2.—William Howard Taft advocated preparedness for war today, illustrated its necessity and detailed the means to that end in an address at the Panama-Pacific exposition delivered at "Taft day" exercises.

ery patriotic American and the occasion for congratulation to the president," said Mr. Taft.

"The very recent news from Washington," the former president said, "shows that the firm attitude of President Wilson in maintaining the rights of our non-combatant citizens on commercial liners of belligerents to be safe from drowning without warning and an opportunity for rescue has been acquired in by Germany.

"This must and should be the cause of profound rejoicing by every patriotic American and the occasion for congratulation to the president.

"It should not, however, lead our people away from their duty of reasonable preparation. The incident, though closed, as we all hope, except as to indemnity for the lives of those already drowned, shows how near, as neutrals, we are to the war. It shows that we must be careful to insist on our rights and that we ought to be reasonably prepared to defend against their invasion by any belligerent powers.

Mr. Taft made a plea for the exclusion of politics from the question of preparedness and for the employment of expert advice. In summing up what he regarded as necessary preparations, he said:

"First, an increase of our navy tonnage as rapidly as possible by 30 per cent and an immediate increase of the personnel of the navy by nearly 20,000 sailors and 500 officers.

"Second, an increase in armament for our great coast defense guns, the making of a few 16-inch guns and the completion of the defense of Chesapeake bay at Cape Henry. In addition, an increase in our regular artillerymen and 600 officers to man the coast defenses properly.

"Third, an increase in our regular mobile army of 50,000 troops and a quadrupling of the supply of educated and experienced officers. This is a reduced term of enlistment with inducement to the formation of a reserve of trained men.

"The program I have proposed," he said, "modest as it is, will certainly increase the annual total of the army and navy appropriations by perhaps $150,000,000 for each of three years and probably more.

"This leaves $223,000,000 at least of necessary income to be provided for by new legislation of Congress over and above what existing law would probably produce. This could be partly met by the increase of the war tax, $125,000,000. There would be left from $100,000,000 to $125,000,000, which still to be provided for, either by cutting down expenses or by additional taxation.

Mr. Taft suggested that expenses could be cut down by giving authority to the president to consider the whole field of government income and expenditure.

A large sum, he said, would, under any circumstances, have to be raised by taxation. As a republican, he said, he favored a change of policy to a higher protective tariff which would serve most satisfactorily, but that he would not urge it because:

"First, it is not a practical suggestion and not a partisan speech, and I am looking to what may reasonably be demanded by the democratic congress in view of the present imperative need of increasing our national income and their anti-protection views.

"The imposition of a small tax on small incomes asks a sacrifice from our patriotic citizens that they will be willing to make if our politicians are not willing to make it and explain the imperative necessity.

"The payment of a tax, however small, makes a man a better citizen. To assume that the plain people are unwilling to pay increased taxes in order to get a better government is to distrust them and to ascribe to them the lowest motive for political action.

"Let us exclude politics from the question of preparedness. Let us accept the cost. Let us insist that congress and the administration manifest the courage to make a sacrifice from thinking and unpatriotic men who would resent contributing to such a cause. Let us insist that the president and the administration shall defer to the judgment of real expert naval and army officers and not to the opinions of shallow and ignorant politicians, ignorant of our needs, to obstruct the work of proper national defense."

Washington, September 2.—The state department today instructed Ambassador Fiske at London to obtain detailed information as to relaxations in the enforcement of the British order in council which the British ambassador here has given informal assurance will be forthcoming.

The department wants to know just what character of shipments will be allowed to come forward and through what channels application may be made to release American cargoes held abroad.

Hundreds of letters from American dealers who either have paid for or obligated themselves to pay for goods now detained in Germany have been received at the state department. The announcement that the enforcement of the order in council was to be relaxed so as to release goods paid for or contracted for prior to the effective date of the order.

American-owned goods now accumulated at Rotterdam are valued at upwards of $150,000,000 and American importers are interested in millions of dollars' worth contracted for but still in Germany.

TO USE YACHTSMEN AS NAVAL RESERVE

Secretary Roosevelt Plans to Build Up Force of Well Organized Amateurs to Aid the Navy.

Washington, September 2.—A plan for building up an adequate national naval reserve was made public today by Acting Secretary Roosevelt of the navy department. It contemplates the mobilization of yachtsmen and powerboat owners and their craft with navy reserve ships in a training squadron, following the idea of the successful army camp at Plattsburg, N. Y.

The statement says that plans have been under consideration for some time for definite organization of the elements outside of the regular naval reserve provided by the last congress under which employment of former navy officers in time of war and filling vacancies on the fighting ships with former enlisted men is authorized. In the past two months 110 men, under the legislation, have entered the reserve.

The statement says the new law also has increased enlistments in the navy. Under the law the coast guard service automatically passes under control of the navy in time of war. It is proposed that the lighthouse and the coast survey service be added to this list, and that state nautical training schools, harbor police and similar state or city services be prepared for national service when needed.

Specialized Service Needed. As volunteer civilians the statement says: "It is believed that the reserve of personnel should total 50,000 officers and men, besides the regular navy personnel. It is not merely numbers, but individuals who will be capable of doing the highly specialized service which is needed in modern navies. For instance, in war time the navy would need the services of possibly 10,000 local pilots for inside waters, helm men, gunners, gasoline motor experts, signal men, etc., besides the regular navy personnel. The department has had many letters asking whether an opportunity could be given to civilians to take courses of training in these specialties, and, if the general plan is approved, it is hoped that national training courses of instruction can be started, using reserve or other available ships, and giving to those who desire three or four weeks of training so that they could become of some definite use if called upon.

Amateur Radio Operators. "Any amateur radio operator, any yachtsman or motor boat enthusiast, in fact, any citizen with intelligence and application could learn how to fit into some scheme where he might be useful. Possibly some form of certificate could be given at the close of instruction, showing exactly what services the holder is capable of performing, and the holder to be under no further obligation than to keep the navy department, at stated periods, informed of his address.

"It is obvious that the navy would need a large number of patrol boats, patrol boats, etc. Steps have already been taken to organize the merchant shipping, but much remains to be done. It is believed that the navy would need the great need of a large number of small and fast yachts and motor boats of a type as seaworthy as possible. The department has already endeavored to co-operate with the power squadrons and it will be possible, in connection with the training of volunteer civilians, to list all suitable vessels and to train their crews in the duties that would be expected of them in connection with the use of naval vessels in the summer time, and would be in charge of regular officers."

Police Believe Boy Was Hit by Train

An unknown boy, unconscious and badly bruised, was found by the railroad track near the Howell mill road by county policemen late last night. He was taken to the Grady hospital, where it is believed that he will recover, if his skull is not fractured.

While being attended in the clinic, the boy, who appears to be about 17 years old, gave the name of Howard Manus. He was too delirious to give connected information that would lead to his identity and home. It is believed by the police that he fell from some passing freight train.

Would Strengthen Defenses To Meet Modern Conditions

Washington, September 2.—President Wilson tonight made public letters he wrote to Secretaries Garrison and Daniels last month, asking them to formulate for him definite programs for strengthening the national defenses that he might make recommendations in his next message to congress.

The secretaries have been at work on the reports for more than a month and now have them virtually completed. As soon as they are submitted the president will discuss them with the chairmen of the military and naval affairs committees of congress.

The letter to Secretary Daniels reads: "I have been giving, as I am sure you have also, a great deal of thought to the matter of a wise and adequate naval program, to be proposed to the congress at its next session and I would like to discuss the whole subject with you at the earliest possible date.

Letter to Garrison. "But first we must have professional advice. I would be very much obliged if you would get the best minds in the department to work on the subject. I mean the men who have been most

WHERE DIPLOMACY COUNTS!

Two most notable diplomatic achievements rest to the splendid credit of President Wilson and his administration. Great Britain, in response to the representations of this government, has agreed to permit uninterrupted sailings from neutral ports of certain German and Austrian goods purchased in this country.

Germany, it is officially announced, has conceded the contentions of the United States as to the conduct of her submarine warfare, the lives of neutrals and non-combatants upon passenger liners are no longer to be placed in jeopardy.

These are distinct triumphs of President Wilson, and are conceded among the most important diplomatic victories of history.

But to this section of the country the most important question of all yet remains to be dealt with—that of giving the cotton crop of the United States the right of a free sea and uninterdicted entry to neutral ports.

It is a question important not alone to the southern states where cotton is grown, but to the entire country on account of the great value of cotton as an export crop. It may be recalled here that for years the cotton crop alone created and maintained the national trade balance in favor of the United States.

There can be no question that an administration which has so successfully and satisfactorily worked out these other two problems is keenly alive to the importance of that still pending. We take it that the president has this cotton situation well in hand, and may be depended upon to get equally good results as he has achieved in these other directions where the south had comparatively little involved, while the adjustment of the cotton exportation problem means much not only to the south, but to the entire country.

The administration has no doubt wisely taken the position that it could not directly or indirectly bring the German and the English problems into combination, that it could not permit the negotiations as to one in any manner to depend upon the other. Germany realized that President Wilson meant business in taking this stand, and ceased to insist upon her former contention.

The German problem, now practically settled, no longer stands in the way. Negotiations with England may be pressed solely upon their own merits.

With all danger of any misunderstanding upon this point removed, the administration will now undoubtedly concentrate its efforts upon inducing Great Britain to modify its drastic orders in making a general contraband of cotton.

Nor should that country hesitate to accord us the full measure of our rights in her attitude toward this product. By moderation and reason Great Britain and her allies will certainly gain more than they could possibly lose through the removal of their unreasonable contraband order, with special reference to neutral ports.

Let us hope the president will induce our neighbor across the sea to take that view of the situation!

AN AWAKENING NEEDED!

Mayor Woodward says Atlanta's proposed bond election for essential permanent improvements in schools, sewers, waterworks, hospitals and other city institutions scheduled to be held September 30 should be called off.

The mayor's attitude indicates the serious need of an awakening in Atlanta.

Six months ago, when business conditions were much worse in Atlanta than they are today, the need for an early bond election was generally recognized. Almost every body was in favor of it. The Atlanta Chamber of Commerce, the Federation of Trades and civic organizations generally pointed out the value of it at that particular time, especially as a means for providing needed employment.

Conditions which might possibly affect the vote for bonds are a hundred times better today than they were then. Business has materially improved and the prospects for one of the most prosperous falls in our history are before us.

Yet we find the mayor and some others suggesting that the bond election be called off. There is more behind it than a question of conditions, general apathy seems to have seized upon it.

It is not a question of conditions. There was never a more favorable time than now for a substantial and growing community like Atlanta to place a reasonable bond issue. Banks the country over are bulging with money awaiting opportunity for safe investment. Good bonds can be sold now at comparatively low interest rates, investors are seeking them.

The real trouble is Atlanta seems to have gone to sleep over this question. There is but one organization that has exhibited any signs of activity, the Federation of Trades. The federation has interested itself, made investigations of its own and is prepared to do its full duty in support of the bond issue.

But where is the Atlanta Chamber of Commerce and Atlanta's other forward civic organizations like the Ad Men's and Rotary clubs, and the Retail Merchants' association—and the women?

Unless these organizations wake up and get busy it must be concluded the mayor is right. It is unquestionably better to call the election off now than to let it go by default for lack of interest and effort.

This bond issue can be passed and passed by an almost unanimous vote but it is going to take organized effort to do it. The voters must be interested and enthused, every voter absent from the polls means an adverse vote. Induced to go to the polls, they will vote for the bonds, there is scarcely a citizen of Atlanta but recognizes the absolute need for them.

But if the Chamber of Commerce and other civic organizations comprising Atlanta's leading business men ignore it, how shall the average voter be interested?

No bond issue can be passed under Georgia's existing law without work, with out genuine organized effort. The reason for this is well understood. It requires two thirds of the entire registration list to sanction it.

Organization for the bond election of September 30 should have been perfected before now, the work should have been planned and under way. The time is short and every day that passes lends weight to the mayor's assertion.

It will be Atlanta's serious loss, if this bond issue fails.
Atlanta's business men can save it if they will organize now and get to work. But unless they get busy—the bond election may as well be called off!

Little Geography Questions—The Falkland Islands.
By GEORGE FITCH.
Author of "At Good Old Siwash."

The Falkland islands are located about 250 miles east of the coldest part of South America, and are about the farthest south in civilization on this hemisphere.
There are about 100 of them but only two are large enough to balance a sheep on with any great success. These two contain about as much land as Connecticut. The land is encumbered with low mountains, weird geological formations, and morasses, and wouldn't bring over $2 an acre if it were located on an American railroad with an enterprising land agent to hawk it.
The climate of the Falklands is equitable. This means that it is equally bad at all times. The temperature averages 47° in the summer and 37° in the winter and the wind only stops blowing on Leap Year days. It is a bleak misty gloomy barren land and very few animals birds or insects live there. They have all had sense enough to emigrate but men live there.

They live there two thousand of them and raise sheep. And they will probably do so until the humane society objects. With South America only 250 miles away and a

GOVERNOR HARRIS DRAWS STATE'S BIGGEST WARRANT

Governor Harris Thursday drew upon the state treasury for a warrant for $349,500 which is the largest warrant ever drawn in the history of the state treasury department.
This warrant was for the purpose of applying this sum against the state's bonded debt and was derived from the sale of the state's recent issue of refunding bonds. The transaction of Thursday however was purely formal as the money had been received and paid some time since. This warrant entered upon the state's book relieves the treasurer of responsibility for the money. The funds remain outstanding in amount of $400,000 worth of bonds which will probably be heard from in the next thirty days.

The state prison commission has adjourned its meeting at the state farm where it went last Monday for the purpose of making arrangements for the improvements of the state prison farm property provided for in the special appropriation of $20,000 made by the last session of the general assembly. Commissioner Rainey made the statement Thursday that the first improvement to be put under way will be the annex to the main prison building which annex will house the negro prisoners.
The bids are now being received for the material for this building and it is expected that the actual work of construction will begin in about ten days. Convict labor will be used in the construction of all the improvements.

SUMNER COUNTY WANTS SHARE OF THE 'STATE ROAD FUND'

The board of county commissioners of Sumner county yesterday filed petition for mandamus against Secretary of State Phil Cook to compel payment of $100,000 to that county as its proportion of the share of the state road fund derived from the sale of automobile tax tags.
The petition disputes the constitutionality of section six of the act of 1913 and all amendment thereto which provides no county shall be entitled to participation in the fund where more than 10 per cent of the automobiles owned in the county are not returned for taxation.

Service has been perfected upon the attorney general who will represent Secretary Phil Cook in the case to be tried first in Fulton superior court on a date to be announced.

How poignant is the lot of those who would conceal financial woes and try to make their neighbors think their fortunes are not on the blink! They live on crusts and cabbage soup and have no comforts in their coop they have to stave and skimp and pinch still slipping backward inch by inch, in want's hard lessons they are schooled—and think they have the neighbors fooled. Their front is brave but all in vain in vain the pinching and the pain that sharper than a serpent's tooth—the neighbors always know the truth. The neighbors say: They are so poor the morrow's grub is never sure and yet you'd think them millionaires, the way they put on fool's airs. They are so proud that they would die before they'd take an offered pie or we would send them things to eat—they'd throw such handouts in the street. How happy are the abject droves who huddle round their empty stoves and make no secret of their plight but loudly clamor for relief. Gump! RECORDER UPHOLDS PAVING ORDINANCE

George Gully, Superintendent of Roadway for Trolley Company, Fined $25.75 After Long Trial.

The Georgia Railway and Power company was held guilty of violating the street paving ordinance in refusing to lay concrete base for the wood block pavement on Grant street by Recorder George E. Johnson yesterday afternoon.

The company's superintendent of roadway, George Gully, was on trial. There were present to represent and back up Gully President Preston S. Arkwright, of the company; William H. Glenn, vice president of the company; Attorneys Colquitt & Conyers, for the defense, while for the city there were Attorney James J. Mason, the chief of construction, Nym Hurt, an Charles Gwynny, inspector of paving.

The street car company was charged with laying a base of crushed stone and wood block pavement. The company contended that the ordinance to pave Grant street was passed by council on May 11 and that the amendment requiring concrete base for wood block pavement was adopted on May 21 and was worded so as to apply only to such paving as was done after that date.

The case against Gully was another move on the part of the city to force the street car company to lay concrete base on Grant street. The first step taken by the city was to force off Grant street to prevent the street cars from using the street. The company had an injunction and the fence was temporarily enjoined and the fence was removed. The hearing has been set by Judge Ellis for Monday, September 13.

This is the same ground on which Victor Innes and his wife, held in San Antonio, Texas, were freed by the United States court to block extradition to Georgia where they were reported to try them for larceny after trust.

Many Women Taking Treatment for Cure Of the "Dope" Habit

Dr. J. P. Kennedy, city health officer, carried A. O. Blalock, internal revenue collector; D. J. Gantt, district revenue agent, and several other prominent officials yesterday to the city's smallpox hospital, that has been equipped for the treatment of drug addicts.

Since the institution was opened Monday twenty-eight patients have been accepted, the majority of them being women. Many of them have gone to the hospital voluntarily, asking that they be allowed to take the treatment.

The government officials were highly pleased with the work being done by the hospital, declaring that no city in the country has co-operated more fully with the government in stamping out the drug evil than Atlanta.

The patients who were "perfectly contented" with the treatment accorded them and all appeared to be glad of the opportunity to be cured of the drug habit.

Two trained nurses are in constant attendance at the hospital, under the direction of the city and county health officers and local physicians.

PLEA FOR PROHIBITION MADE BY SAM SMALL

Lecturer for the Anti-Saloon League Makes Address at Gainesville.

Gainesville, Ga., September 2.—(Special.)—Rev. Sam Small, national lecturer of the Anti-Saloon League of America, spoke here tonight to a deeply interested audience of about 500 on the subject of prohibition, state and national.

"The Georgia situation," he said, "is simple but far-reaching. It is a new battle over the old Democratic issue: Shall the people rule? The smallest question involved is whether a man favors or opposes state-wide and enforced prohibition. The opponents of that policy, already lawfully established for the state, are a political minority; but the violent insurrection of their legislative representatives has forced upon the great majority of our citizens the vital issue of majority or minority rule in this great commonwealth. On that issue every true patriot and just man must stand and fight with the majority.

"The contrary position is unfair, undemocratic and against every tradition of Georgia constitutional justice. It is a conspiracy to take the state out of the hands of the people and to place it in the hands of a few men. Barons Trounce Locals, Winning Double-Header

By W. S. Bethel. Birmingham, Ala., September 2.—(Special.)—Billy Smith's Crackers suffered more disaster today than is apparent in the box score. Jenkins will be out of the game for ten days with a split hand, joining Blizard on the hospital list. In the third inning of the second game Jenkins caught a foul off Eliam's bat between the thumb and forefinger of his throwing hand. The ball reopened a wound he got earlier in the season here, and it was necessary to take four stitches to close it. Moran was struck on the left elbow during the second game and will have a very lame arm for several days. Some weird stuff was pulled off on Rickwood field this afternoon, when Birmingham took both ends of a double-header from Atlanta. Inability of the Crackers to hit the opposing twirlers and the ease with which the Barons did that said thing brought about the result.

Hidden Ball Trick. Dan Clark, the Baron infanter, got away with some stone-age stuff when he caught Moran off second in the latter game with the hoary hidden ball play. Two homers enlivened the first session, one by Kaufman and another by Preacher Perryman, the ex-Cracker, in the second. Billy Smith's boys could not connect safely with Emmet Key until the eighth, when Reed doubled, and the ninth when McDonald doubled. Baron bats drove Day from the box in the fifth inning of the first game. After five runs had been scored he was relieved by Allen, who held the Barons scoreless during the second half of the game, which coupled with a weak offensive, gave the Barons the battle. In the first battle the fireworks started immediately when the Crackers played an error and the Barons came back with two. With two down, Lee drew him on four wide ones, stole second and went to third when Williams threw wild. Moran walked and Lee scored on Reed's vicious slap to right field. In Cracker's shortstop fielded Eliam duplicated, and both scored on Black's triple to right field. That ended the scoring.

Kaufman Hits Homer. The second tally came in the fourth when Kaufman slammed one to the center field bleachers for four bags. The Barons scored in the first when Lindsay was safe on a fielder's choice and Clark put one over the right field fence. In the third inning, when Clark, first up, doubled to center, went to third on Coyle's sacrifice and scored on a moment later. Ed Ellum duplicated, and both scored on Black's triple to right field. In the second game Perryman was invincible, and the Crackers at no stage of the game were threatening. The Barons runs came in the second and third on a combination of hitting and error. Moran first up in the second tripled. Coyle went out, Reed to Kaufman, Coombs walked, dying a minute later attempting to steal. Ellum bunted to Redding and the pitcher threw late to the plate. Clark scoring. Ellum crossed the plate a moment later. Ed Bhotgun John Wallace's double to left. Two more runs came in the fourth when Moran hit a shot which McDonald failed to get. Lindsay hit to right field and Manning and McDonald took turns throwing the ball a way. Elice scoring and Lindsay going to third, counting a moment later on Clark's tap to right field. Perry will work against Johnson tomorrow.

Detroit, Mich., September 2.—Three easterners and one winner from the west are left to face the semi-finals tomorrow of the national amateur golf championship. They are Max R. Marston, Springfield, N. L.; Sherill Sherman, Tulsa, N. Y.; John G. Anderson, Mt. Vernon, N. Y., and Robert A. Gardner, Chicago. The south lost its hope for championship recognition when Anderson won from Nelson Whitney, of New Orleans, 3 and 2. Marston beat Howard B. Lee, of Detroit, in the most poorly played but longest match of the day. Marston, after seemingly beaten on the home D. Standish, Jr., of Detroit, after being down 11 and 9, came back to win 13 and 11. Sherman to play thirty-six holes before the latter won 1 up. Gardner gave Sawyer, of Winston, N. C., a fearful battle, but came out on top and to play. Anderson beat Whitney, 3 and 2. Sherman Dark Horse. The semi-finals tomorrow will bring together Gardner and Marston in what is expected to be the feature match. Sherman will play against the U. S. man, "dark horse" of the tournament, will have his first opportunity to compete in a contest of national interest.

Marston's Fine Shot. Officials ruled that as the property belonged to the country club and was still in play. Three trees stood between Marston and the cup. He lifted his ball over the fence and struck the green more than a hundred yards away. Lee was so surprised he lost the hole, 6- and the match. Marston had three next holes in par by playing every stroke in the most spectacular feat of the tournament. His second drive for the thirty-fourth hole sailed over a course and over a fence and landed in an adjoining field.

Sawyer Beaten Badly. Sawyer, four down in the forenoon, won only two holes during the rest of the day. Gardner, four up after lunch Gardner topped his first drive but Sawyer's shot approach resulted in the hole being halved. Gardner also halved the 20th. Gardner hooked to the rough and Sawyer took the 21st, 4-5. The next five holes went to former Yale pole vaulter, making him 8 up. They split the 24th, 4-5, after which Gardner's second round in 38 and Sawyer took the 26th and 27th holes. Each won a hole coming back before the light ended on the 34th green.

ERRATIC PLAYING IN TENNIS TITLE

Forest Hills, N. Y., September 2.—Erratic play by leading contenders for the title was the outstanding feature of the third round of the national tennis championship singles tournament here today. Weather conditions were the chief cause of the erratic play, which was on hand to applaud every winning stroke, but the general form of the players was not as high as in the early rounds. There was an almost entire absence of the spectators at Wednesday's matches. T. Norris Williams II, playing through champion, defeated Walter Merill Hall, 6-2, 9-7, 2-6, 6-1. Maurice B. McLaughlin, who captured two sets in the championship in 1912 and 1913, won from Leonard Beckman, 6-2, 3-6, 6-2, 6-2. Karl Behr disposed of George S. Browne in one set, 6-1. Johnston put out D. S. Watters of New Orleans, 6-1, 6-2, 6-2. Clarence J. Griffin, of the Hartford, Conn. coast team, defeated Ward Dawson, 6-3, 7-5, 6-2. Never in Danger. Without exception the victors were in no danger of being defeated. Williams had something to do with the standard of the play. This was particularly true with Merill Hall, who appeared to be a whirlwind against Hall, slumped in the third set, but he appeared to be at the same speed at which he began. Hall made a plucky struggle. Williams was a regular wizard with his racket in the opening set, but once safely in the lead he seemed to lose control and allowed the internationalist into a deuce set before he would acknowledge defeat. Williams finally captured the set at 6-7. Emphatically by his success, Hall opened the third session fast. He took a lead of three games and he took the set at 4-1. Williams tried to get back into the game, but he was only beyond his reach, he was only postponing the inevitable, as each rally captured the set at 6-7.

Walker Fans Fifteen. New Orleans, September 2.—Roy Walker, who led out fifteen Mobile batsmen and held the visitors to four hits while the Pelicans were pounding him, held the score at 5 to 1. Will Amateur Title Be Decided in Game To Be Played Saturday? Will the amateur championship of Atlanta be decided when the Argos and the Atlanta National tie up in the third game of the series at Ponce de Leon Saturday? That's the question that has got everybody in the local amateur world all stirred up. The two teams have met twice before, the Atlanta National winning the first, 2 to 1, in ten innings, while the Argos won the second, two teams battled to a ten-inning 3-3 tie. These two times are easily the class of amateurs in Atlanta, and local fans would do well to journey out to Ponce tomorrow and give them the once-over. Gently will probably hurl for the bank team, while York, the elongated hulk of the Argos, and who has been having hard luck recently, will be sent in to oppose him. The game will start at 3:30, and an admission fee of 25 cents will be charged.

RENFROE AGAIN

Small men distrust their fellowmen— Unfaithful officials fear the people— Renfro himself does not count— He is an echo— He is Mayor Woodward's man Friday— His "solemn promise" is the Mayor's threat— The Mayor would not believe the oaths of honest policemen— Friday wants "affidavits" from honest citizens.

The Mayor distrusts the people— His slogan has been— "Let the people rule." Now he fears for them to vote— He tries to intimidate.

And— Frederick "Joke" Paxon— says "Peace."

"As to the threat to publish the names of the signers of these petitions, it is immaterial with me. As for myself, I am willing for my name to head the list. (Signed) "W. A. BASS."

"For my part, I would like for every man whose name is on the recall to know that I have signed. (Signed) "JAMES B. FICKLEN."

"I feel that every citizen has a perfect right to vote his sentiments without giving offense to any intelligent, fair-minded citizen. I hope we have no absolute monarchy or privileged class in Atlanta to direct the small fry in using what is supposed to be a personal right. (Signed) "T. A. E. MEANS."

"You can publish my name if you wish. (Signed) "J. M. B. CARLTON."

"Much is being said by Mayor Woodward and his friends about publishing a list of the names of those who sign the recall petitions. . . . I give the Mayor permission to publish my name and I will vote to recall all seven, and I would be more determined now than ever before to do so. . . . Is this the time for citizens to cry "Peace, peace?" There can be no real peace till a wrong is avenged or is set right by the wrongdoer, for the injustice will always cry out against us. The humblest citizen is entitled to a fair and impartial trial by his fellows and to stand or fall according to the weight of evidence produced. I am yet to meet the first man who believes Beavers had a fair trial, but I find some who are too timid to sign a recall. However, I am glad to say some of that timidity is passing and the Mayor's threats are arousing men to their duty, however unpleasant it may be for them to do so.

COLUMBUS MAN KILLED BY BROTHER-IN-LAW

In Presence of Slain Man's Wife and Boys Taylor Fires Four Shots.

Columbus, Ga., September 2.—(Special.)—In the presence of his wife and two boys, W. D. Raney was shot to death last night shortly before midnight by the trial at Letohatchee, Ala. The shooting took place at the former's home at 2205 Third avenue.

Those directly concerned refuse to make any extended statement of the trouble, but it seems that Raney, who is said to have been drinking, drove his wife from home yesterday. Last night, accompanied by her brother, Will Taylor, she went to the home. Raney and his two boys, William, aged 11, and Earl, aged 9 years, had retired and were asleep. Words ensued between the two men and as a climax to the conversation Taylor shot Raney four times with a pistol, every bullet taking effect, and evidently producing practically instantaneous death. A few minutes later, when the police called, they found Raney's corpse in the midst of his demoralized family, while Taylor had disappeared. The two children, who were awakened by the loud words, gave confused accounts of the tragedy. Taylor drew his pistol and fired at his father several times.

Taylor's absence from the house was soon explained for not long after the killing he went to police headquarters and voluntarily surrendered. He says that he regrets the killing, although he claims that he was justified in the act. He will be given a preliminary trial after the funeral of his brother-in-law. Raney was well known in court circles. He has been fined more than once in the past for drunkenness, and at the time of his death was under indictment on the charge of violating the prohibition laws. In a statement today Taylor said that Raney had been mad with his wife because she would not testify falsely in court in a garnishment suit that had been brought against him; that he shot Raney here this afternoon, and finally becoming angered at him made a rush at him with his knife, the knife being in his hand, and that he was seated and did not have time to get up and, hastily drawing his pistol, he shot his brother-in-law while still seated in his chair, saying that Raney had threatened to kill the grocer who furnished him.

NEW MUNICIPAL TICKET ANNOUNCED IN MACON

No Opposition to Mayor Smith So Far—Formation of Coalition Ticket Failed.

Macon, Ga., September 2.—(Special.) Efforts to form a coalition ticket for the coming municipal election having failed, former Mayor Jno. T. Moore, Jr., of the Citizens' Ticket today announced a full aldermanic ticket to oppose the one named a few days ago and known as the "Citizens' Ticket." The personnel of the ticket follows:

First Ward—Fred Williams, Charlie Brunner and F. M. Jones.
Second Ward—W. R. Evans, E. A. Adamson and W. H. C. Johnson.
Third Ward—Bill Miller, W. T. Morgan and Marion Ramsey.
Fourth Ward—R. S. Thorpe, J. L. Anderson and W. Andrew Taylor.

The important meeting made to reach a compromise by agreeing on a coalition ticket, six members to be elected by the citizens' committee, was rejected by the citizens' committee, however, and was immediately followed by the announcement of the new ticket. Mayor Smith stated it was his opinion the people did not want a political campaign this fall because of the unsettled business conditions, and for that reason had consented to a compromise. Personally, he will have no opposition this year and the fight will now center around the aldermanic tickets.

It is admitted that both aldermanic tickets are as strong as all of the members are well-known men, the lists being composed of men in different ranks, from the highest to the lowest. Only two of the men on Mayor Smith's ticket are at present members of the Citizens' Ticket. They are W. R. Evans and F. M. Jones.

Fred Williams is a banker; Charles Brunner, a druggist; E. A. Adamson, a machinist; W. H. C. Johnson, secretary of the Macon Chamber of Commerce; Bill Miller, groceryman; W. T. Morgan, of the Central of Georgia railway; R. S. Thorpe, clothing merchant; J. L. Anderson, a contractor; and W. Andrew Taylor, manufacturer.

The Citizens' Ticket, as announced several days ago, is composed of the following:

First Ward—P. L. Hay, Wallace Miller and C. W. Schuchert.
Second Ward—H. G. Hollingsworth, B. K. Merrill and W. J. Yarbrough.
Third Ward—W. H. Adams, Dr. W. G. Lee and H. W. Pittman.
Fourth Ward—Ben J. Dasher, L. A. Miller and W. W. Stetson.
